Transforming Social Housing Sasha Tsenkova, 2020-12-23 The recent global crisis exposed vulnerabilities of housing markets pointing to the need to build resilience through better policy tools and sustainable provision of social housing In the context of fiscal austerity social housing is affected by changing politics privatization and concentration of urban poverty Transforming Social Housing International Perspectives explores the differences and similarities in housing policies and practices by focusing on social housing institutions and their ability to influence affordability and quality of housing The focus is on private and not for profit provision in mixed income developments supported through partnerships and a mix of policy instruments The book brings together contributions by leading scholars on key debates affecting social housing in cities around the world The international perspectives provide an interdisciplinary robust overview of complex processes of change affecting people places and homes It is particularly well suited for students scholars policymakers and professionals interested in housing urban planning and public policy The chapters in this book were originally published in various issues of the Urban Research Practice journal

Ageing and the Built Environment in Singapore Belinda Yuen, 2018-06-28 This book contains a collection of studies that have been conducted among older residents in Singapore Different methods from surveys to crowd sourcing have been used to investigate the older adults lived experiences and social participation in the residential environment The findings reveal that older residents interact with the built environment in ways that reflect their changing capabilities and lifestyles Since the built environment where we live and go can have an important impact on our daily lives especially among older people understanding these experiences and perceived needs is important to help older individuals age within their community Ageing in Singapore Peggy Teo, Kalyani Mehta, Leng Leng Thang, Angelique Chan, 2006-09-27 Older persons are often portrayed as social and financial burdens because pensions health and social care have to withstand increasing old age dependency ratios Due to a lack of access to representation or a lack of social and economic power older people have found few opportunities to have their voices heard making age an immensely political issue Written by an impressive team of authors this book provides an in depth analysis of the experience of ageing in Singapore examining key issues such as health work housing family ties and care giving It looks at how social categorization enters into everyday life to elucidate the multiple meanings of age and identity encountered in a rapidly changing economy and society Providing original critical discourse from Asian writers recording Asian voices Ageing in Singapore will appeal to a wide readership and is an invaluable resource for policy makers service practitioners and scholars working on Asian gerontology

Straight nation Pavan Mano, 2025-03-04 Straight nation dissects the intricacies of nationalism in postcolonial Singapore and its entanglements with the governance of sexuality Rejecting the romanticization of the nation as a pure bastion of belonging the book theorizes nationalism as a force obsessed with continually generating threats and excavates the alliance it has struck up with heteronormativity to produce a series of minoritized figures that contemporary identity claims can neither handle nor dispel Through an elegant exploration of a vast array of texts and cultural artifacts the book argues that the relationship between sexuality and nation is instrumental in producing multiple queered figures who are displaced from the national imaginary Dwelling on what is often taken as conventional wisdom Straight nation demonstrates how queerness can be xenologized under the sign of the postcolonial nation and turned into a technology of race gender and class in the right contexts The book delivers a sharp riposte to narrow identity politics and outlines in detail how the governance of sexual expression functions as a powerful mechanism to shape the lives of many including as unlikely as it may seem heterosexual people In the face of the far reaching effects of heteronormativity coupled with nationalism Straight nation presents a compelling argument for an expansive non identarian political critique capable of dismantling the deeply entrenched force of heteronormativity in postcolonial Singapore and the detritus of nationalism along with it

High-Rise Living in Asian Cities Belinda Yuen, Anthony G.O. Yeh, 2011-02-02 This book is intended to fill a knowledge gap in the study of contemporary high rise living While there has been much documentation on the engineering and technological aspects of tall buildings relatively little has been written about the social and livability of high rise Much less is written about Asian cities even though Asia is the current hotbed of high rise development Even though traditional discourse of high rise housing is not always positive new forces are redefining its place in 21st century urbanity Many cities around the world are reembracing high rise in urban agenda under current narrative of sustainable development High rise is fast becoming a priority area in international research agenda The quest is for livable and sustainable high rise development Against the background of current trends globalization urbanization mixed use development and new built taller buildings in inner city areas in both developed and developing countries this book examines the software design economics estate management legal and property rights physical environment planning community development and social dimensions of high rise living Analysis is with the widely acclaimed successful high rise public housing in Hong Kong and Singapore to understand the advantages and worries of high rise living and to distill the key points and lessons in the making of a good highrise living environment Hong Kong and Singapore have been constructing high rise for more than four decades each The majority of their population has moved to live in high rise selecting to live high rise and registering consistently high residential satisfaction The height of apartment buildings in both cities continues to rise The tallest is anticipated to be 70 storey It is the contention of this book that contrary to earlier common negative discourses on public high rise living the high rise environment may yet offer urban residents a satisfying dwelling experience Leading housing academics researchers and practitioners in the two cities have contributed to this book This book presents a timely contribution to our understanding of a widening urban phenomenon that will affect a growing number of the world s population

Handbook on Space, Place and Law Robyn Bartel, Jennifer Carter, 2021-04-30 This innovative Handbook provides an expansive interrogation of the spaces and places of law exploring how we engage relationally in a material world within which we are inter dependent and reliant and governed by laws in a dynamic process It advances novel insights into the numerous intersections of space place and law in our lives

Architectures of Ageing in Place Anuradha Chatterjee, 2025-11-14 Architectures of Ageing in Place provides curated critical perspectives from a practice based research point of view of buildings that are purpose built and or refurbished to accommodate housing and care needs of older people ageing in place in high rise medium rise integrated communities This book identifies design innovations in line with policy innovations that have been made across private and public sectors to accommodate wellbeing and quality of life of older people living in integrated communities which continue to foster intergenerational dialogue and exchange and advance social citizenship Case studies from a diverse range of geographies are examined including Portugal Singapore India New Zealand UK Sweden Belgium and the US Chapters are grounded in evidence based research including substantial primary data and post occupancy evaluation specifically the evaluation of architecture s social performance Projects highlight high rise medium rise as an emerging and successful typology in accommodating residential and care needs of older people Taking a broad interdisciplinary approach this book will be a helpful reference not only for architects designers and urban planners but also for students and practitioners in health and social care gerontology ageing and medical sociology
