Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1969 Primer to Developing a Successful Pre-service Teacher Portfolio James P. Takona, Roberta J. Wilburn, 2004 This guide for pre-service teachers provides the means for documenting professional growth and development. Takona, educational technology and media. LeMoyne Owen College and Wilburn, early childhood education. LeMoyne Owen College explain the principles and practice of developing and using a portfolio. Cognitive and Affective Growth (PLE: Emotion) Shapiro Edna, Evelyn Weber, 2014-11-20 Originally published in 1981, this title is a collection of chapters based on papers presented at a conference called to explore what the editors called a developmental interaction point of view, an approach to developmental psychology and education that stresses these interactive and reciprocal relations. The contributors, although from diverse professional backgrounds, are united in their commitment to an integrative view of developmental phenomena, one that highlights relationships among different aspects of development and the reciprocal nature of relations between people and their environments. The North Carolina Teacher, 1928 "Education Has Nothing to Do with Theology" Edward J. Newell, 2006-08-01 Does education have any relation to theology? How do the educator's worldview commitments speak to his or her practice of education? James Michael Lee brought a definite answer to these questions: a firm no to the relations question and an advocacy for empirical findings over and against any speculative or theoretical positions. In reply to the commitments question, Lee claimed to have a universal neutral metatheory for all religious education, a theory that would apply to all religious educators in any and every religion. But in proposing his theory, he overlooked the way that empirical facts express worldviews. This book is a detective story tracing commitments that lay underneath empirical neutrality. In the process, the reader will see avenues that unmistakably link education to theology. Education turns out to be a thoroughly worldview-conditioned process. This new work is essential reading for professors and students in both religious and general education. A Manual on Certification Requirements for School Personnel in the United States, 1967 Newark School Bulletin, 1929
