MADAME D ARBLAY BY LORD MACAULAY Frances Burney was descended from a family which bore the name of Macburney and which though probably of Irish origin had been long settled in Shropshire and was possessed of considerable estates in that county Unhappily many years before her birth the Macburneys began as if of set purpose and in a spirit of determined rivalry to expose and ruin themselves The heir apparent Mr James Macburney offended his father by making a runaway match with an actress from Goodman s fields The old gentleman could devise no more judicious mode of wreaking vengeance on his undutiful boy than by marrying the cook The cook gave birth to a son named Joseph who succeeded to all the lands of the family while James was cut off with a shilling The favourite son however was so extravagant that he soon became as poor as his disinherited brother Both were forced to earn their bread by their labour Joseph turned dancing master and settled in Norfolk We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience
