genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Congressional Record United States. Congress,1999 American Immigration Policy Steven G. Koven, Frank Götzke, 2010-08-09 Collaboration can be a painful process especially between authors of different disciplines This book is an outgrowth of discussions between a Political Scientist and Economists at the School of Urban and Public Affairs University of Louisville The Economics perspective is found in Chapter 3 and was largely written by Frank Götzke The Political Science oriented review Chapters 2 and 6 as well as all the case studies were largely provided by Steven Koven Most of the book but especially Chapters 4 5 and 7 evolved as a consequence of conversations between the two authors We believe the product of two disciplinary approaches has produced a collective outcome that is greater than the sum of individual parts would have been In this book we have attempted to combine the analytical empirical historical political and economics approaches Chapter 3 presents an analytical model based on economics Chapters 4 and 5 summarize empirical census data related to immigrants and Chapter 6 reviews the legislative and political history of immigration
