Gandhi's Assassin Dharendra Jha, 2023-01-24 The life of Nathuram Godse the man who shot Gandhi Dharendra Jha's deeply researched history places Nathuram Godse's life as the juncture of the dangerous fault lines in contemporary India the quest for independence and the rise of Hindu nationalism

On a wintry Delhi evening on 30 January 1948 Nathuram Godse shot Gandhi at point blank range forever silencing the man who had delivered independence to his nation

Godse's journey to this moment of international notoriety from small towns in western India is by turns both riveting and wrenching

Drawing from previously unpublished archival material Jha challenges the standard account of Gandhi's assassination and offers a stunning view on the making of independent India

Born to Brahmin parents Godse started off as a child mystic However success eluded him The caste system placed him at the top of society but the turbulent times meant that he soon became a disaffected youth desperately seeking a position in the infant nation

In such confusing times Godse was one of hundreds and later thousands of young Indian men to be steered into the sheltering fold of early Hindutva Indian nationalism

His association with early formations of the RSS and far right thinkers such as Sarvkar proves that he was not working alone

Today he is considered to be a patriotic hero by many for his act of bravery despite being found guilty in court and executed in 1949

Madan Mohan Malviya Sanjay Goyal, 2021-01-01

Demystifying Brahminism and Re-Inventing Hinduism Satya Shri, There is nothing more miserable than to feel that emancipation is in the air and yet suffer the slavery of a mistaken idea

The author seeks to re-invent Hinduism by bringing to the fore its most fundamental postulates as

- 1 Worship of the monotheistic formless Brahman
- 2 God realisation through Nishkam Sewa selfless service
- 3 Social equality and brotherhood vasudhaiva kutumbakam
- 4 Self realisation through Jnana Yoga Karma Yoga and Bhakti Yoga
- 5 Salvation through worldly life of Purusharth Dharm Arth Kaam Moksha

EK Samaj repudiates the following attributes as excrescences and repugnant to the faith

- 1 Mixing philosophy and religion made Hinduism an unorganised religion
- 2 Worshipping numerous deities and limiting religious service to mere darshan of the idols fragmented Hinduism
- 3 Hereditary priesthood as permanent intermediaries for communion with God polluted the religion
- 4 Occupational purity and pollution camouflaged iniquitous social divisions
- 5 Individual instead of congregational worship smothered Hindu brotherhood
- 6 Pretensions of attaining Siddhis through meditation and penances eulogised 7 Escapism in worldly renunciation honoured 8 Fatalist karma theory made Hindus pessimistic and other worldly 9 Transmigration reincarnation 84 lakh births used as props for gradation of castes 10 Acceptance of Ahimsa made Hindus a doormat for the ruthless barbarians 11 Karma kand and Mantra Tantra Yantra etc justified as the sole religious expressions 12 Lack of proselytisation prevented Hinduism from becoming a world religion 13 Devdasi tradition made temples the venues of entertainment and recreation

The Temple Road Towards a Great India Marta Kudelska, Dorota Kamińska-Jones, Agnieszka Staszczyk, Agata Świerzowska, 2019-11-30 This book presents an analysis of the foundations organised by the Birla family in India Several generations were involved in the renovation and establishment of sanctuaries temples and other sacral buildings As a result between 1933 and 1998 nineteen Birla Mandirs were established mainly in northern and central India All the temples have the capacity to surprise with their various decorative motifs not seen in other places which apart from their aesthetic function above all bear important symbolic content Therefore is it possible to treat the Birla Mandirs as a specific medium the carrier of a particular message that is not only religious but with a significance that permeates other layers of social and political discourse This message as the authors of the book claim have a bearing on the socio political thought of India supported by the creation and propagation of ideas related to identity and a national art It also conveys the idea of hierarchical Hindu inclusivism which although considering all religions as equal treats Hinduism in a unique way seeing within it the most perfect form of religion giving man the opportunity to learn the highest truth The book also examines whether the temples founded by the Birla family and the religious activities undertaken therein apply the concept of inventing tradition and whether traditions created or modernised in contemporary times are a way of enhancing the appeal of the message conveyed from temple to society

International Books in Print ,1997 The Hindustan Review ,1918 Power and Influence in India Pamela Price, Arild Engelsen Ruud, 2012-07-26 Taking cognisance of the lack of studies on leadership in modern India this book explores how leadership is practiced in the Indian context examining this across varied domains from rural settings and urban neighbourhoods to political parties and state governments The importance of individual leaders in the projection of politics in South Asia is evident from how political parties mobilisation of movements and the media all focus on carefully constructed personalities Besides the politically ambitious have considerable room for manoeuvre in the institutional setup of the Indian subcontinent This book focuses on actors making their political career and or aspiring for leadership roles even as it also foregrounds the range of choices open to them in particular contexts The articles in this volume explore the variety of strategies used by politically engaged actors in trying to acquire or keep power symbolic action rhetorical usage moral conviction building of alliances illustrating in the process both the opportunities and constraints experienced by them In taking a qualitative approach and tracking both political styles and transactions this book provides insights into the nature of democracy and the functioning of electoral politics in the subcontinent Ascetic Culture ,2021-12-06 The collection of papers in Ascetic Culture Renunciation and Worldly Engagement was entirely conceived and developed by K Ishwaran who died in June 1998 The original concept was to focus on Tradition and Innovation in Monastic Life in South Asia a topic which combined two of Ishwaran s major interests comparative studies of the monastic systems of south Asia and criticism of Western anthropological and sociological assumptions of tradition and modernity being antithetical especially with regard to traditional religions Ishwaran saw this collection of papers as reinforcing the demise of universalistic projects all encompassing grand master narratives and similar globally integrative theoretical or empirical enterprises in social discourse flowing from the post structural and post modernist revolutions in the social sciences Later he conceived of broadening this topic to be more liberally comparative to include major religious traditions around the world The new title was to be Tradition and Modernity in Monastic orders in Contemporary Societies Finally he broadened the theme to the present title of his collection Taken together the articles appearing in this book strongly support Ishwaran s theses First is the obvious point that eremitism and asceticism are far more complex than commonly understood in the scholarly world If ever a general understanding of these interrelated phenomena is developed careful examination not only how they are found in these cultures and traditions but also study of their particular manifestations in individual movements places cultures social groups etc must take place The second thesis is clearly established by the range of these papers ascetic traditions are not only inimical to modernity they may be found at the heart of certain contemporary social and cultural developments K Ishwaran has rendered the study of religion in particular and the social sciences in general an important service with this anthology Contributors are John E Cort Alan Davies Balkrishna G Gokhale Daniel Gold Shaman Hatley Sohail Inayatullah Klaus K Klostermaier David Miller S A Nigosian Jordan Paper and Earle H Waugh The Caravan Delhi Press

Radhakrishnan K. Satchidananda Murty,Ashok Vohra,1990-09-11 This book presents a critical and comprehensive biography of Radhakrishnan The authors explain how Radhakrishnan who had a British knighthood and an Oxford Professorship and who did not participate in India s struggle for freedom became important in the political life of Independent India They show how this philosophy professor and vice chancellor often expressed radical views developed rapport with national leaders and became President of Indian under Nehru without losing the goodwill and regard of either the British intellectuals or the colonial government of India It is the thought of Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan that is most often presented in the West as Hinduism Through an analysis of his autobiographical sketches writings of those who knew him and worked with him and documents the authors come to grips with Radhakrishnan s complex personality which in spite of his greatness and varied achievements is all too human
