Muletrain to Maggody Joan Hess,2004-02-23 Under the benign watch of Police Chief Arly Hanks things are pretty quiet in the sleepy Arkansas town of Maggody these days Not even the prospect of a historical society funded Civil War documentary on the locally touted albeit historically insignificant Skirmish at Cotter s Ridge of 1863 does much to stir up the denizens of this sleepy backwoods town What does finally get the rumor mill buzzing however is the revelation that two saddlebags of Confederate gold were hidden in a local cave to keep them from falling into Yankee hands Once word gets out that the saddlebags were never recovered almost everyone in town has a plan to get their hands on the lost gold Meanwhile a colorful cast of outlanders has taken over Maggody They include a dewy Charleston belle a famous writer of historical romances her ne er do well son and three dozen obsessive reenactors who have not yet acknowledged that the Civil War ended over a hundred years ago as well as a documentary film crew and a handsome if enigmatic filmmaker with ties to Arly s past Arly has more than enough on her hands trying to locate missing senior citizens and keeping the visitors from each cornfields drawing reporters newscasters and every nut west of the Mississippi But as supernatural fever hits Maggody Arly is confronted with a very terrestrial murder There may be aliens on Main Street but in a town this strange how could anybody tell the difference Life has always been nutty in Maggody but the madness is about to go paranormal Master of cozies Joan Hess knows better than anyone how to push a mystery to the brink of madness and then push it a whole lot farther Martians in Maggody is the 8th book in the Arly Hanks Mysteries but you may enjoy reading the series in any order
