Constructing the Colonial Encounter Niels Brimnes, 2019-05-08 This book offers a systematic analysis of the violent clashes between the South Indian right and left hand caste divisions that repeatedly rocked the European settlements on the Coromandel Coast in the early colonial period Whereas the Indian population expected the colonial authorities to intervene in the disputes the Europeans were reluctant to get involved in conflicts which they barely understood In the nineteenth century the significance of the divisions diminished a development that has long puzzled historians and anthropologists In addition this study addresses the larger issue of the nature of colonial encounters The rich material relating to these disputes convincingly demonstrates how Europeans and Indians as they sought to incorporate each other into their own social structure and conceptual universe participated in a dialogue on the nature of South Indian society Gazetteer of South India W. Land and Caste in South India Dharma Kumar, 1965 South India Study of factors contributing to the growth of the landless rural worker force in the Madras area with particular reference to historical aspects and the role of UK agricultural policy during the 19th century covers the social structure social status forms of forced labour in agriculture land tenure agrarian reform population growth and its relationship to land ownership migrant workers wage structures etc References and bibliography pp 197 to 204 Guide to Kodaikāṇal and Its History E. my particular case the direction of a large local museum happily made an excellent blend with the survey operations as the work of collection for the ethnological section went on simultaneously with that of investigation The survey was financed for a period of five afterwards extended to eight years and an annual allotment of Rs 5 000 provided for each Presidency and Province This included Rs 2 000 for approved notes on monographs and replies to the stereotyped series of questions The replies to these questions were not I am bound to admit always entirely satisfactory as they broke down both in accuracy and detail I may as an illustration cite the following description of making fire by friction They know how to make fire i e by friction of wood as well as stone etc They take a triangular cut of stone and one flat oblong size flat They hit one another with the maintenance of cocoanut fibre or copper then fire sets immediately and also by rubbing the two barks frequently with each other they make fire

Castes and Tribes of Southern India Edgar Thurston,1909      Trichinopoly Madras (India : Presidency),F. R. Hemingway,1907      The Imperial Gazetteer of India William Wilson Hunter,1887      'How Best Do We Survive?' Kenneth McPherson,2012-12-06 This book traces the social and political history of the Muslims of south India from the later nineteenth century to Independence in 1947 and the contours that followed It describes a community in search of political survival amidst an ever changing climate and the fluctuating fortunes it had in dealing with the rise of Indian nationalism the local political nuances of that rise and its own changing position as part of the wider Muslim community in India The book argues that Partition and the foundation of Pakistan in 1947 were neither the goal nor the necessarily inescapable result of the growth of communal politics and sentiment and analyses the post 1947 constructions of events leading to Partition Neither the fact of Muslim communalism per se before 1947 nor the existence of separate Muslim electorates provide an explanation for Pakistan The book advances the theory that micro level studies of the operation of the former and the defence of the latter in British India can lead to a better understanding of the origins of communalism The book makes an important contribution to understanding and dealing with the complexities of communalism be it Hindu Muslim or Christian and its often tragic consequences

Madras District Gazetteers: Ramanathapuram Madras (India : State),B. S. Baliga (Rao Bahadur.),1957      Castes and Tribes of Southern India. Vol. 5 of 7 Edgar Thurston,2020-03-06 Excerpt The Marakk yars are described in the Madras Census Report 1901 as a Tamil speaking Musalman tribe of mixed Hindu and Musalman origin the people of which are usually traders They seem to be distinct from the Labbais q v in several respects but the statistics of the two have apparently been confused as the numbers of the Marakk yars are smaller than they should be Concerning the Marakk yars of the South Arcot district Mr Francis writes as follows 1 The Marakk yars are largely big traders with other countries such as Ceylon and the Straits Settlements and own most of the native coasting craft They are particularly numerous in Porto Novo The word Marakk yar is usually derived from the Arabic markab a boat The story goes that when the first immigrants of this class who like the Labbais were driven from their own country by persecutions landed on the Indian shore they were naturally asked who they were and whence they came In answer they pointed to their boats and pronounced the word markab and they became in consequence known to the Hindus as Marakk yars or 2 the people of markab The Musalmans of pure descent hold themselves to be socially superior to the Marakk ayars and the Marakk yars consider themselves better than the Labbais There is of course no religious bar to intermarriages between these different sub divisions but such unions are rare and are usually only brought about by the offer of strong financial inducements to the socially superior party Generally speaking the pure bred Musalmans differ from those of mixed descent by dressing themselves and their women in the strict Musalman fashion and by speaking Hindust ni at home among themselves

Historical Dictionary of the Tamils Vijaya Ramaswamy, 2017-08-25 The Tamils have an unbroken history of more than two thousand years Tamil the language they speak is one of the oldest living languages in the world The only people comparable to the Tamils in terms of their hoary past and vibrant present would be the Jews with one marked difference The Tamils have always had their homeland Tamilaham alternately pronounced and spelt Tamizhaham known today as Tamil Nadu which to them represents their mother and is revered by them as Tamizh Tai literally Tamil Mother This is in striking contrast to the Jews who have been through a long and arduous struggle to gain their homeland a deeply contested site to this day with Hebrewisation of Israel being a key marker of Jewish identity in the region Tamils by contrast have a clear numerical majority in the region that now comprises Tamil Nadu and the language unites rather than divides adherents of different faiths The second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Tamils contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Tamils
