Mafeking Memories:

Mafeking Memories Frederick Saunders, 1996 Saunders gives us a vivid and unique soldier's eye view of the siege the daily life the hunger the regular bombardment from long range Boer guns the forays against the Boers and the antics of Baden Powell who tried to keep up the morale of the garrison Saunders's descriptions of the countryside are graphic too revealing an artist's sensitivity His account nicely supplements others written by journalists and by prominent officials at Mafeking The editor who obtained the memoir from the Saunders family provides an introduction that places the siege in its historical context Enemy Intimacies and Strange Meetings in Writings of Conflict 1800-1918 Holly

Furneaux, 2025-04-03 Propaganda others the enemy as brutish brutal and lacking in humanity By contrast a wealth of literary and first hand writings present switches in which the enemy becomes as Wilfred Owen famously put it a strange friend This book focuses on moments of intimacy and reassessment between military enemies truces treatment of the wounded relationships with prisoners of war It is concerned with the work done by declarations of fellow feeling both to challenge and enable militarism The book explores enemy intimacies in literature philosophy and life writings to ask questions about the nature of amity enmity familiarity and otherness It ranges across British conflicts of the long nineteenth century a period in which ideas about the uniqueness of combat experience coalesced with a European effort to secure a distinctive version of so called civilized humanity The sense that soldiers of the other side bonded by experiences unavailable to civilians were just like us came into tension with views about the dissimilarity of other nations and races This book considers which enemies can become familiar and which are held as other investigating dividing lines of nation race religion and culture Enemy Intimacies and Strange Meetings asks how far these affectively powerful encounters can shift individual and wider narratives about civilisation and humanitarianism Attention to the violence that can be done by claiming and denying fellow feeling is held in tension with hope in the queer possibilities of reoriented compassion This book uncovers a rich cultural history of enemy intimacies to consider different orientations of cosmopolitanism and humanitarian fellow feeling while recognizing and explaining the ways in which full international kinship remains elusive Memories and Impressions Ford Madox Ford, 1911

South African Memories Sarah Wilson, 2018-04-06 Reproduction of the original South African Memories by Sarah Wilson Women in South African History Nomboniso Gasa, 2007 Accompanying CD ROM contains the complete text of the printed volume Washed with Sun Jeremy Foster, 2014-08-15 South Africa is recognized as a site of both political turmoil and natural beauty and yet little work has been done in connecting these defining national characteristics Washed with Sun achieves this conjunction in its multidisciplinary study of South Africa as a space at once natural and constructed Weaving together practical aesthetic and ideological analyses Jeremy Foster examines the role of landscape in forming the cultural iconographies and spatialities that shaped the imaginary geography of emerging nationhood Looking in particular at the years following the British victory in the second Boer War from 1902 to 1930 Foster discusses the influence of painting writing architecture and photography on the construction of a shared romanticized landscape subjectivity that was perceived as inseparable from being South African and thus helped forge the imagined community of white South Africa In its innovative approach to South Africa s history Washed with Sun breaks important new ground combining the persuasive theory of cultural geography with the material specificity of landscape history Mafeking! Malcolm Flower-Smith, Edmund James Yorke, 2000 Mafeking ranks as one of the major military epics of the Anglo Boer War A courageous garrison led by British Army Colonel Baden Powell the founder of the Boy Scouts withstood more than seven months of starvation death and destruction before they were relieved A powerful story of human endurance South Africa ,1907 The Decline and Fall of the British Empire, 1781-1997 Piers Brendon, 2010-02-09 A WASHINGTON POST BOOK WORLD NOTABLE BOOK After the American Revolution the British Empire appeared to be doomed Yet it grew to become the greatest most diverse empire the world had seen Then within a generation the mighty structure collapsed a rapid demise that left an array of dependencies and a contested legacy at best a sporting spirit a legal code and a near universal language at worst failed states and internecine strife The Decline and Fall of the British Empire covers a vast canvas which Brendon fills with vivid particulars from brief lives to telling anecdotes to comic episodes to symbolic moments South African Memories Lady Sarah Isabella Augusta Wilson, 1909 Growing up in Botswana in the 1930s and 40s Spencer 'Ted' Nettelton, 2024-03-12 Spencer Ted Nettelton grew up in Botswana during the 1930s and 40s when herds of wildebeest stretched across the horizon and locally shot game was part of the staple diet In Volume I of his memoirs Ted describes the daily life of an adventurous boy living in the bush and the impact on his family when caught in the spotlight of international events From the banishment of Botswana s King Seretse Khama later elected Botswana s first president to the birth of a new African nation Lesotho Ted and his family played integral roles Educated in Cape Town Ted followed his father into the British Colonial Service was posted to the mountains of Lesotho in the 1950s organised the country s Independence Celebrations a decade later and then served as Secretary to Lesotho s first democratically elected Prime Minister Leabua Jonathan with whom he enjoyed an enduring friendship Ted Nettelton s memoir is a fascinating account of an era that has vanished and a first hand perspective of the momentous changes that took place in the southern part of the African continent during the twentieth century Memories and Adventures Arthur Conan Doyle, 1924 Captured Memories, 1900-1918 Peter Liddle, 2011-02-23 Peter Liddle was a pioneer in the recording of memories of personal experience in the First World War and in the social background of those who lived through those years Later he moved into the recording of men and women for whom the Second World War was the formative experience of their lives In a planned two volume collection of the most outstanding interviews of the four thousand he made for the first volume he has chosen memories which take the reader back as many as a hundred and twenty years to days in sailing ships a Hebridean boyhood suffragist action pre 1914 working class life and work in the North East of England city life in London service in the Boer War pioneering a settlement in Manitoba Canada and the Army's experiments in the use of man lifting kites airplanes and balloons The main focus of the book is upon the First World War with The Western Front battles the Gallipoli Campaign and the Battle of Jutland prominently featured Liddle also represents the Mesopotamian and East African fronts and women nursing under particularly unusual circumstances Several Victoria Cross award winners and a fighter pilot ace appear as do those whose distinction was to come later in their lives like Harold Macmillan Henry Moore Gordon Jacob Emanuel Shinwell Barnes Wallis and Victor Silvester There is even an interview with the first conscientious objector to be court martialled and sentenced to death before commutation of the sentence This book is a veritable treasure trove of the past
