Medieval Islam A Study In Cultural Orien

Abdulla M. Lutfiyya

Medieval Islam A Study In Cultural Orien:

Maqama Jaakko Hämeen-Anttila, 2002 For the first time the genre of the maqama the most widespread and popular genre of fictional prose within Arab literature is presented in its comprehensive history It was through its stylistic virtuosity as well as its awareness of a situation of social and intellectual crisis that the maqama portraying the picaresque dramatic performance of a needy literary artist won global fame The most celebrated maqamas of Al Hariri d 1122 have not only formed part of the Arabic literary canon for many centuries but have inspired even extra Arabic oriental literatures such as Hebrew and Christian Syrian and more lately modern arabic theatre Text in English Das Werk stellt erstmals die Geschichte einer der originellsten und zugleich meistrezipierten Prosagattungen der arabischen Literatur vor die Maqame eine dramatisch pikareske Selbstinszenierung eines mittellosen Sprachkünstlers die ihre Einpragsamkeit ihrem gesellschaftskritischen Gehalt nicht weniger als ihrer sprachlichen Virtuositat verdankt Die Maqamen Hairis st 1122 gehören nicht nur seit Jahrhunderten und bis heute zum arabischen literarischen Kanon sie haben auch die ausser arabische hebraische und syrisch christliche orientalische Literatur und sogar das moderne arabische Theater inspiriert Text in englischer Sprache Baytin Abdulla M. Evolution of the Medieval World David M Nicholas, 2014-07-16 This ambitious and wide ranging study of the European Middle Ages respects the complexity and richness of its subject always accessible it is never merely superficial or over simplistic Stressing the long term factors of continuity evolution and change throughout David Nicholas discusses the social and economic aspects of medieval civilization and examines their links with political institutional and cultural development Designed for students and non specialists his book triumphantly meets the need for a comprehensive survey of the medieval world within the covers of a single authoritative volume Resurgent Islam Philip W. Sutton, Stephen

Vertigans, 2005-11-11 With a glossary and a bibliography Medieval Islam Gustave E. von Grunebaum, 2010-01-15 From the Preface This book has grown out of a series of public lectures delivered in the spring of 1945 in the Division of the Humanities of the University of Chicago It proposes to outline the cultural orientation of the Muslim Middle Ages with eastern Islam as the center of attention It attempts to characterize the medieval Muslim s view of himself and his peculiarly defined universe the fundamental intellectual and emotional attitudes that governed his works and the mood in which he lived his life It strives to explain the structure of his universe in terms of inherited borrowed and original elements the institutional framework within which it functioned and its place in relation to the contemporary Christian world A consideration of the various fields of cultural activity requires an analysis of the dominant interest the intentions and to some extent the methods of reasoning with which the Muslim approached his special subjects and to which achievement and limitations of achievement are due Achievements referred to or personalities discussed will never be introduced for their own sake let alone for the sake of listing the sum total of this civilization s major contributions They are dealt with rather to evidence the peculiar ways in which the Muslim essayed to understand and to organize his world The plan of the book thus rules out the narration of political history beyond the barest skeleton but it requires the ascertaining of the exact position of Islam in the medieval world and its significance This plan also excludes a study of Muslim economy but it leads to an interpretation of the social structure as molded by the prime loyalties cherished by the Muslim
