More Poetry Please:

More Poetry Please!, 1988 Poetry Please Various Poets, 2013-10-01 BBC Radio 4's Poetry Please is the longest running broadcast of verse anywhere in the world. First aired in 1979, the programme, a request show which broadcasts to two million listeners a week, has become a unique record of the country's best loved poems over the decades since its inception. The BBC has looked back through its rich archive of recordings to produce a poll of the most asked for and most broadcast pieces ever: it is those poems that this anthology brings together here. A showcase in effect for the nation's favourite verse, Poetry Please is a treasure trove for our most requested and most listened to poems of all time. It is a compelling invitation for readers of all ages and backgrounds to celebrate the verse that we care so much about from new readers to old, from schools to reading groups. This is a book for giving, a book for cherishing. More Poetry Please! Susan Roberts, 1992-01-01 Poetry Please: The Seasons Various Poets, 2015-11-03 This new anthology of poems, favourites from the nation's longest running and best loved request programme for verse, moves with the seasons following the turning year from John Clare's pale splendour of the winter sun to John Keats's Season of mists and mellow fruitfulness by way of Larkin's young leafed June and Gerard Manley Hopkins' glassy peartree leaves and blooms when Nothing is so beautiful as Spring. As the year changes so we change with it. Since time out of mind our daily lives have been shaped and directed by the seasons and it is here that we find poems about harvest and hardship, growth and new life, the warmth of the life-giving sun, Christmas and the closing of the year. Poetry Please: Seasonal Poems is a vital and generous gathering to treasure. Pass the Poetry, Please! Lee Bennett Hopkins, 1972 Resource tool for those involved in bringing poetry into the lives of children. Includes bibliographies, biographies and short critiques of children's interest in poetry. Copyright Libri GmbH. All rights reserved. Please, No More Poetry Derek Beaulieu, Kit Dobson, 2013-06-30 Since the beginning of his poetic career in the 1990s, Derek Beaulieu has created works that have challenged readers to understand in new ways the possibilities of poetry. With nine books currently to his credit and many works appearing in chapbooks, broadsides and magazines, Beaulieu continues to push experimental poetry both in Canada and internationally in new directions. Please No More Poetry is the first selected works of Derek Beaulieu. As the publisher of First Housepress and more recently No Press, Beaulieu has continually highlighted the possibilities for experimental work in a variety of writing communities. His own work can be classified as visual poetry, as concrete poetry, as conceptual work and beyond. His work is not to be read in any traditional sense as it challenges the very idea of reading; rather, it may be understood as a practice that forces readers to reconsider what they think they know. As Beaulieu continues to push himself in new directions, readers will appreciate the work that he has created to date, much of which has become unavailable in Canada. With an introduction by Kit Dobson and an interview with Derek Beaulieu by Lori Emerson as an afterword, Please No More Poetry offers readers an opportunity to gain access to a complex experimental poetic practice through thirty-five selected representative works. Poetry Please: Love Poems

King,2014-03-27 Although Ruth Pitter 1897 1992 is not well known her credentials as a poet are extensive and in England from the mid 1930s to the mid 1970s she maintained a modest yet loyal readership In total she produced eighteen volumes of new and collected verse Her A Trophy of Arms 1936 won the Hawthornden Prize for Poetry in 1937 and in 1954 she was awarded the William E Heinemann Award for The Ermine 1953 Most notably perhaps she became the first woman to receive the Queen's Gold Medal for Poetry in 1955 Furthermore from 1946 to 1972 she was often a guest on BBC radio and television programs In 1974 The Royal Society of Literature elected her to its highest honor a Companion of Literature and in 1979 she received her last national award when she was appointed a Commander of the British Empire Pitter was a voluminous letter writer Her friends and correspondents read like a Who's Who of twentieth century British literary luminaries including AE George Russell A R Orage Hilaire Belloc Walter de la Mare Julian Huxley John Masefield Phillip and Ottoline Morrell George Orwell Dylan Thomas T S Eliot C S Lewis James Stephens Dorothy L
