 Hollywood and History Jem Duducu,2023-09-15 There is no shortage of Hollywood films about historical events but what do the movies actually get right and why do they get so much wrong Hollywood loves a story good guys versus bad guys heroes winning the day and the guy gets the girl But we all know real life isn't exactly like that and this is even more true when we look at history Rarely do the just prevail and the three act story cannot exist over continents and decades of human interaction So when Hollywood decides to exploit history for profit we end up with a wide array of films Some are comedies like Monty Python and the Holy Grail others are little more than action films playing dress up like Gladiator and many are Oscar contenders burdened with an enormous sense of self importance But very few are historically accurate From Cleopatra to Da 5 Bloods the reality is no matter what Hollywood's intentions are almost all historical films are an exaggeration or distortion of what really happened Sometimes the alterations are for the sake of brevity as watching a movie in real time about the Hundred Years War would literally kill you Other additions may be out of necessity since nobody thought to write down the everyday conversations between King Henry VIII and his second wife Anne Boleyn for The Other Boleyn Girl And some projects twist the facts to suit a more sinister purpose In Hollywood and History Jem Duducu takes readers through thousands of years of global history as immortalized and ultimately fictionalized by Hollywood exploring many facets of the representation of history in movies from the medieval times to the wild west and both World Wars Along the way readers will also better understand Hollywood's own history as it evolved from black and white silent shorts to the multiplex CGI epics of today As studios and audiences have matured through the years so too have their representations of history Armies will clash leaders will be slain empires will fall and a few historical inaccuracies will be pointed out along the way A must read for film and history fans alike

Settler Aesthetics Mishuana Goeman, 2023-11 In Settler Aesthetics an analysis of renowned director Terrence Malick's 2005 film The New World Mishuana Goeman examines the continuity of imperialist exceptionalism and settler colonial aesthetics The story of Pocahontas has thrived for centuries as a cover for settler colonial erasure destruction and violence against Native peoples and Native women in particular Since the romanticized story of the encounter and relationship between Pocahontas and Captain John Smith was first published it has imprinted a whitewashed historical memory into the minds of Americans As one of the most enduring tropes of imperialist nostalgia in world history Renaissance European invasions of Indigenous lands by settlers trades in a falsified civilizational discourse that has been a focus in literature for centuries and in films since their inception Ironically Malick himself was a symbol of the New Hollywood in his early career but with The New World he created a film that serves as a buttress for racial capitalism in the Americas Focusing on settler structures the setup of regimes of power sexual violence and the gendering of colonialism and the sustainability of colonialism and empires Goeman masterfully peels away the visual layers of settler logics in The New World creating a language in Native American and Indigenous studies for interpreting visual media
