The Justice of the Peace, and Parish Officer ... The Twenty-second Edition: with Many Corrections, Additions, and Improvements, by John King, Etc Richard BURN (LL.D.), 1869 Violence and Justice in Bologna Sarah Rubin Blanshei, 2018-04-02 This collection of essays offers a unique contribution to the study of violence and justice in a late medieval and early modern Italy by combining a multivocal perspective with a case study focus on the city state of Bologna

Drawing on the city's singularly rich archival resources the authors explore various facets of violence ranging from the interpersonal to the less frequently studied typologies of blasphemy rape political rebellion and student brawls and set the institutions of the police and law courts into their socio political and cultural contexts They also apply a broad variety of quantitative and qualitative approaches processual microhistorical legalism comparative and criminological to their assessments of the procedures and practices of criminal justice and the experiences of violent behavior providing both short term in depth analyses of specific events and over arching reviews of long term trends Bologna itself with its renowned university economic innovations strategic importance as a commercial and cultural crossroads its political volatility and experiments with diverse constitutional structures provides a rewarding laboratory for analyzing changes and continuities in late medieval and early modern violence and justice From these studies emerges a narrative that challenges the traditional portrayal of those periods as eras when brutality and rage were normal in social relations and criminal justice was characterized mainly by punitive strategies of torture and repression
