Poles Apart Parallel Visions Of The Arctic And Antarctic:

Poles Apart ,1995 In Poles Apart Galen Rowell takes us on an exhilarating visual journey to the top and the bottom of the world using the parallel visions of his camera to reveal the fascinating differences between these polar opposites

Antarctic News Clips ,1996 The United States in Antarctica ,1997 This document represents the final report of the United States Antarctic Program External Panel The report has the unanimous approval of all 11 panel members and draws upon our collective experience which includes some 44 individual trips to Antarctica involving visits to all three U S stations each research ship support icebreakers and numerous field sites As a panel we visited McMurdo Station and South Pole Station and toured support facilities at Christchurch We received approximately 70 briefings and conducted 80 one on one meetings with individuals involved in virtually all aspects of the Antarctic Program Over 200 inputs were received in response to our request for public comments During visits to McMurdo and the Pole the Panel conducted informal Town Meetings and was the beneficiary of numerous comments by members of those communities having first hand experience in day to day operations We are most appreciative of the candor and professionalism with which we were treated by all those with whom we came into contact and in particular the members of the National Science Foundation who so expertly and constructively supported our efforts We believe the U S Antarctic Program is well managed involves high quality science and is important to the region as well as to the United States We also believe that in the current budget environment costs must be reduced preferably through increased efficiency and reinvention but if not through reduced scope Recommendations are offered herein to help ensure the continued viability of the program into the 21st century Slicing the Silence Tom Griffiths,2007 The author reflects on his experiences exploring Antarctica the last true wilderness Lonely Planet

BOOK JACKET

An Unsung Hero Michael Smith,2010-03-03 The story of the remarkable Tom Crean who ran away to sea aged 15 and played a memorable role in Antarctic exploration He spent more time in the unexplored Antarctic than Scott or Shackleton and outlived both Among the last to see Scott alive Crean was in the search party that found the frozen body An unforgettable story of triumph over unparalleled hardship and deprivation

Research Handbook on International Environmental Law Malgosia Fitzmaurice,David M. Ong,Panos Merkouris,2010 an impressive volume and the editors have put together a high quality collection Research Handbook on International Environmental Law ought to be an invaluable reference source for both teachers and students of international environmental law in the years to come Web Journal of Current Legal Issues This wide ranging and comprehensive Handbook examines recent developments in international environmental law IEL and the crossover effects of this expansion on other areas of international law such as trade law and the law of the sea The expert contributors offer analyses of foundational issues in IEL such as responsibility for environmental damage sustainable development and the precautionary principle alongside studies in topical subject areas including marine protection and the law of international watercourses This Research Handbook offers an in depth analysis of IEL both as a field of law in its own right and as part of the wider system of international law It gives a comprehensive view of IEL in all its forms and complexity With thorough examination of specific environmental regimes and compliance mechanisms this Handbook will be an indispensable resource for legal scholars students and practitioners alike Atlas of Improbable Places Travis Elborough,2021-07-06 Atlas of Improbable Places shows the modern world from surprising new vantage points that will inspire urban explorers and armchair travellers alike to consider a new way of understanding the world we live in I Am Just Going Outside: Captain Oates - Antarctic Tragedy Michael Smith,2002-09-10 On 17 March 1912 Lawrence Titus Oates crawled bootless from a tent to his death in blizzard conditions of 40 C Oates always an outsider on Scott s Polar expedition died on his 32nd birthday His parting words were I am just going outside and may be some time Oates was the epitome of the Victorian English gentleman a public schoolboy who became a dashing cavalry officer and hero in the Boer War Stationed in Ireland from 1902 to 1906 his passion became horse racing and he won numerous victories at racecourses throughout Ireland Oates austere and dominating mother blamed Scott for her son s death and was among the first to challenge the accepted version of events She continued to control his memory long after his death keeping his diary and letters hidden even ordering their destruction from her deathbed Oates always had difficulty forming lasting relationships with women He died without realising that he was a father The story of how Oates died unaware of his daughter has been a closely guarded secret until now This is a compelling and heart rending story of endurance bravery and folly From the author of TOM CREAN AN UNSUNG HERO
