Salerno, 2022-04-20

This book studies a grouping of films set in New York City between 1965 and 1995 reflecting a town besieged by rampant criminality social distress and physical decay Fear City is a term the NYPD used to label New York as a frightening environment incapable of securing the safety of its residents This book not only deals with the social problems evident in New York during this period but also provides a study of how independent filmmakers were able to capture unsettling urban imagery capitalizing on feelings of paranoia and dread The author explores how the tone of these films reflects upon the anti urbanism that led to the War on Crime the mass exodus of working class people from the city and mass incarceration of young Black men      Cinema and the Wealth of Nations Lee Grieveson, 2018-01-02

Early Cinema and the "National" Richard Abel, Giorgio Bertellini, Rob King, 2008-12-17 Essays on how motion pictures in the first two decades of the 20th century constructed communities of nationality recommended Choice While many studies have been written on national cinemas Early Cinema and the National is the first anthology to focus on the concept of national film culture from a wide methodological spectrum of interests including not only visual and narrative forms but also international geopolitics exhibition and marketing practices and pressing linkages to national imageries The essays in this richly illustrated landmark anthology are devoted to reconsidering the nation as a framing category for writing cinema history Many of the 34 contributors show that concepts of a national identity played a role in establishing the parameters of cinema s early development from technological change to discourses of stardom from emerging genres to intertitling practices Yet as others attest national meanings could often become knotty in other contexts when concepts of nationhood were contested in relation to colonial imperial histories and regional configurations Early Cinema and the National takes stock of a formative moment in cinema history tracing the beginnings of the process whereby nations learned to imagine themselves through moving images
