Policing Desire Pornography Aids And The Media Media Society:

Policing Desire Simon Watney, 1987 Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes Museum Culture Daniel J. Sherman, 1994 Museums display much more than artifacts Museum Culture makes us on a tour through the complex of ideas values and symbols that pervade and shape the practice of exhibiting today Bringing together a broad range of perspectives from history art history critical theory and sociology the contributors to this new collection argue that museums have become a central institution and metaphor in contemporary society Discussing exhibition histories and practice in Western Europe the former Soviet Union Israel and the United States the authors explore the ways in which museums assign meaning to art through various kinds of exhibitions and display strategies examining the political implications of these strategies and the forms of knowledge they invoke and construct The collection also discusses alternative exhibition forms the involvement of some museums with the more spectacular practices of mass media culture and looks at how museums construct their public Hope & Folly William Preston, Edward S. Herman, Herbert I. Schiller, 1989-01-01 Created in a burst of idealism after World War II the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization UNESCO existed for forty years in a state of troubled yet often successful collaboration with one of its founders and benefactors the United States In 1980 UNESCO adopted the report of a commission that surveyed and criticized the dominance in world media of the United States Japan and a handful of European countries The report also provided the conceptual underpinnings for what was later called the New World Information and Communication Order a general direction adopted by UNESCO to encourage increased Third World participation in world media This direction it never became an official program ultimately led to the United States's withdrawal from UNESCO in 1984 Hope and Folly is an interpretive chronicle of U S UNESCO relations Although the information debated has garnered wide attention in Europe and the Third World there is no comparable study in the English language and none that focuses specifically on the United States and the broad historical context of the debate In the first three parts William Preston covers the changing U S UNESCO relationship from the early cold war years through the period of anti UNESCO backlash as well as the politics of the withdrawal Edward Herman's section is an interpretive critique of American media coverage of the withdrawal and Herbert Schiller's is a conceptual analysis of conflicts within the United States's information policies during its last years in UNESCO The book's appendices include an analysis of Ed Bradley's notorious 60 Minutes broadcast on UNESCO The Future of an Illusion Constance Penley, 1989 The Future of an Illusion was first published in 1989

Moral Panics in the Contemporary World Julian Petley, Chas

Critcher, Jason Hughes, Amanda Rohloff, 2016-05-19 Moral Panics in the Contemporary World represents the best current theoretical and empirical work on the topic taken from the international conference on moral panics held at Brunel University. The range of contributors from established scholars to emerging ones in the field and from a working journalist as well helps to cover a wide range of moral panics both old and new and extend the geographical scope of moral panic analysis to previously underrepresented areas. Designed from the outset to comprise a coherent and integrated set of viewpoints which share a common engagement with critically exploring moral panics in the contemporary world, it contains case studies instantly recognisable and familiar to a student readership: drugs, alcohol, sexual abuse and racism. The collection brings a fresh approach to analysis and argument by testing and extending the concept of moral panic and analyzing a range of topics and geographical contexts accurately reflecting the state of the art moral panics research today. Culture, Society and Sexuality Richard Guy Parker, Peter Aggleton, 1999 This work offers an introduction to the central debates in sexuality research. Among the issues examined are the social and cultural dimensions of sex, human sexuality and sex research. Sexuality and Society Gargi Bhattacharyya, 2005-07-08 In this broad ranging introduction to the study of sexuality Gargi Bhattacharyya guides students through the key theoretical debates and shows how this applies to sexuality as it is experienced in contemporary society.
