Submerged Sheena King, 2025-10-14 Fearless honesty Deep despair Resilient discovery Profound forgiveness Revolutionary hope and liberation Submerged is the story of one woman's journey from a nightmare of childhood sexual abuse through a world of drug gangs and murder to prison and ultimately personal redemption through faith and a dedication to helping others This is Sheena King's story a raw harrowing memoir anchored in revolutionary and transformative love It is at the same time a story shared by tens of thousands of women especially women of color who are incarcerated as the result of events that began with abuse by someone who should have been there to protect and nurture them During her years in prison Sheena found the strength to free herself through the process of helping countless other victims of childhood abuse Now she offers her memoir with the express hope that it will help many more As Rikayah Lindsay of the Abolitionist Law Center writes in her foreword This book shows that we must take our collective healing and liberation seriously interrogating the root causes and demanding accountability not only for ourselves but also for the systems that create the conditions for so much harm to occur With Lindsay's foreword and an introduction by Victoria Law Submerged offers essential insights for all who want to understand and participate in the growing movement for alternatives to incarceration In her own introduction Sheena King writes I've told my story Now tell yours It will free you Taking the State out of the Body Eliana Rubin, 2024-09-24 Taking the State out of the Body is a guidebook in deconstructing nationalism through trauma informed praxis Embedded in the political theory and practice of Jewish anti Zionism it invites readers of all backgrounds to build an embodied sense of safety that has the power to make militarized borders policing and nation states obsolete We need the resources offered in this book from understanding geopolitical impacts of intergenerational trauma to self regulation in conflict to transformative approaches to harm to cultivating long haul relationships to building solidarity across our movements The book s framework is situated in the lineages of healing justice and politicized healers including many antifascist Ashkenazi Jewish practitioners in 1930s Europe Today as the terms somatics and trauma have been mainstreamed Taking the State out of the Body is a timely offer to move from individual awareness to collective action Weaving anti imperialist orientations to historical events with embodiment theory each chapter opens with a connection to a plant or body part and closes with a guide to practices that fuel resistance and resilience This book will equip you with the tools you need to move from rugged individualist models of self help preservation to liberatory frameworks of collective care and joint struggle
