Policing Paradise:

Popular Cinema as Political Theory J. Nelson, 2013-12-05 The book presents cinematic case studies in political realism versus political idealism demonstrating methods of viewing popular cinema as political theory The book appreciates political myth making in popular genres as especially practical and accessible theorizing about politics

Beach Politics Setha Low, 2025-01-21 Explores how elites restrict access to public beaches around the globe Beaches are a beloved form of public space Yet there has been an alarming global trend of restricting access to public sections of beaches to ensure that waterfront property owners can enjoy the shoreline exclusively or develop the land for commercial use Beach Politics examines how over the past forty years privatization of public space has accelerated with the help of both local governments and national corporations On a local level this can entail a group of wealthy neighbors purposely blocking off public beach access in their neighborhood hiring security guards building fences or putting up No Trespassing signs to turn away members of the public who have every right to be there On a state or national level it can manifest as gated communities owned by private corporations sectioning off huge swaths of land limiting access or governments promoting private rather than public development along the shoreline Whenever disputes about land use arise the powers that be often side with private interests and the wealthy over those with fewer resources and frequently people of color With the continuing threat of climate change decisions about how and where to harden or protect the shoreline often limits public use Focused on beaches access to public space and social justice this book brings together powerful contributions illustrating how these issues are inextricably bound with socioeconomic status racial segregation and climate justice Together they highlight how through illegal actions and exclusionary legislation the beach can be transformed from a strip of nature into a palimpsest of greed racism ecological disregard and socioeconomic discrimination

Policing Paradise John P. Butler, Margaret H. Greenberg, 1991

As Eve Said to the Serpent Rebecca Solnit, 2001-01-01 A multidisciplinary compilation of nineteen incisive essays ranges from the formality of traditional art criticism to intimate lyrical meditations as they explore nuclear test sites the meaning of national borders and geographical features and the idea of the feminine and the sublime

The Red Wall Jane Hall, 2007 Since 1977 people have asked Jane Hall over and over what it was like to have been among the first few female members in the RCMP and like so many of her peers she has avoided answering the question How could one sentence do the question justice Finally after years of thoughtful contemplation she has borrowed a phrase from the father of one of the original members of the North West Mounted Police Sub Inspector Francis Dickens It was the best of times it was the worst of times But the reason for avoiding the answer like the question itself was a little more complex than simply not having the correct words To truly tell the complete story some of the bad as well as the good must be told and that was why senior female members like Ms Hall had chosen to remain silent fearing that any abbreviated response could be misinterpreted or subverted to unfairly attack the RCMP After all it was the RCMP who broke new social and professional ground when it decided In the absence of any empirical evidence to the contrary the assumption had to be that females would be capable of performing all the diversified duties in the Force equal to the males The RCMP the embodiment of the Canadian national identity levelled the professional playing field for women and by doing so in this unprecedented leadership role the RCMP catapulted the women s movement forward impacting the lives of women throughout North America and quite possibly the world Says Jane Hall It is time to break the silence time to acknowledge our successes and our failures Time to move forward

The Hidden Wordsworth Kenneth R. Johnston,2001 This is a Wordsworth we have never quite seen before Hermione Lee The New York Times

Global Crime and Justice David Jenks,John Randolph Fuller,2016-12-08 Global Crime and Justice offers a truly transnational examination of both deviance and social controls around the world Unlike comparative textbooks detailing the criminal justice systems of a few select nations or cataloging types of international crimes that span multiple legal jurisdictions Global Crime and Justice provides a critical and integrated investigation into the nature of crime and how different societies react to it The book first details various types of international crime including genocide war crimes international drug and weapons smuggling terrorism slavery and human trafficking The second half covers international law international crime control the use of martial law and the challenges of balancing public order with human and civil rights Global Crime and Justice is suitable for use in criminology and criminal justice departments as well as in political science international relations and global studies programs It will appeal to all who seek an academically rigorous and comprehensive treatment of the international and transnational issues of crime and social order

Secret History Steven Loveridge,Richard S. Hill,2023-07-13 In 1900 a handful of New Zealand police detectives watched out for spies seditionists and others who might pose a threat to state and society The Police Force remained the primary instrument of such human intelligence in New Zealand until 1956 when a decade into the Cold War a dedicated Security Service was created Over the same period New Zealand s role within signals intelligence networks evolved from the Imperial Wireless Chain to the UKUSA intelligence alliance now known as Five Eyes The first of two volumes chronicling the history of state surveillance in New Zealand Secret History opens up the secret world of security intelligence through to 1956 It is the story of the surveillers who in times of war and peace turmoil and tranquillity monitored and analysed perceived threats to national interests It is also the story of the surveilled those whose association with organisations and movements led to their public and private lives being documented in secret files Secret History explores a hidden and intriguing dimension of New Zealand history one which sits uneasily with cherished national notions of an exceptionally fair and open society

Murder at a Vineyard Mansion Philip R. Craig,2004-06-15 The Vineyard s criminal du jour the Silencer is loved by many and hated by some for his campaign to destroy the audio systems in music blasting party houses and open windowed vehicles Owners of said houses and vehicles feel both fear and hate while some residents who seek silence silently cheer J W Jackson former cop and now a part time investigator finds it difficult to get too excited about the Silencer s crimes J W s a classical music man
