Policy Formation In The European Communi:

Policy-making in the European Union Helen Wallace, Mark A. Pollack, Alasdair R. Young, 2015 The policies of the European Union profoundly affect the lives of people in Europe and around the world The new edition of this highly successful textbook outlines how and why such decisions are made as well as the key challenges faced by policy makers in the current political and economic climate

Policy-Making in the European Union Laura Cram, 2005-06-28 Laura Cram takes a fresh view at attempts to conceptualize the process of European integration Her book explores the impact of the day to day work of policy maker interest groups and bureaucrats in influencing the environment in which European Treaty formulation and ratification are taken She sheds new light on the wide range of policy areas in which institutions such as the Commission of the European Union and the European Court of Justice have succeeded in expanding the scope of EU competence despite national government opposition

Policy-Making in the European Union Helen S. Wallace, Mark A. Pollack, Alasdair R. Young, 2025 The ninth edition of Policy Making in the European Union offers students and scholars a comprehensive understanding of the processes and institutions involved in EU policy making It particularly examines these processes in a more politicized context Gives students a solid grounding in theories and empirics of EU policy making Details the processes and institutions central to EU policy making Analyses a wide range of policy areas in greater detail than any competing text considering substantive material in both a practical and theoretical context Concludes with a clear assessment of the challenges that have shaped and will continue to shape policy making including the politicization of the EU Brexit geopolitical shifts and Covid 19 New to this edition Detailed assessment of the implications of greater geopolitical contestation including Russia's invasion of Ukraine in 2022 Evaluation of the implications of the UK's departure for EU policy making Coverage of the EU's response to the Covid 19 pandemic and what it reveals about EU policy making

European Union Policy-Making Nicole Herweg, 2017-02-23 This book furthers the ongoing theoretical development of the multiple streams framework assessing its applicability to European Union EU policy making processes It systematically defines and identifies functional equivalents for all of the framework's core concepts at the EU level and extends the framework in order to explain agenda setting and decision making Furthermore the book derives a set of explicit hypotheses to empirically assess the extent to which the modified framework is able to explain timing agenda prominence and policy change or a lack thereof for the EU natural gas directives passed in 1998 2003 and 2009 The analysis documents that the framework is well suited to explain the EU policy process in general and reveals where additional theoretical refinements are required

Policy-Making in EU Security and Defense H. Dijkstra, 2013-08-29 EU foreign policy has long been considered the exclusive domain of member states This book challenges such state centered wisdom by analyzing the influence of Brussels based EU officials in the area of security and defence Using case studies and unique insights from over a hundred interviews this book shows how everyday policy is made in practice

Policies and Policy Processes of the European Union Laurie

Buonanno, Neill Nugent, 2020-11-28 The dynamic and complex system of European Union policymaking is analysed in this new edition of a much praised textbook. It offers the most integrated understanding of EU policy available. Major approaches to policymaking including intergovernmentalism, neofunctionalism, supranationalism and critical theory are presented and supplemented with the authors' own theoretical model. Federal integration to create a comprehensive evaluation of the EU's interests and actors in key policy domains. The text covers the EU's main policy areas including those on the single market, Economic and Monetary Union, foreign policy, migration and border control, social and regional policies and the budget, locating them in this wider theoretical framework. As such, it is the key introduction to the subject for students of European Politics at undergraduate and postgraduate levels. New to this Edition: Each chapter rewritten many extensively throughout. New chapters on migration and border control, competition policy and social and cohesion policies. New illustrative material and many new examples. Each chapter now includes a Guide to Further Reading. Accompanying online resources for this title can be found at bloomsburyonlineresources.com. Policies and policy processes of the European Union. These resources are designed to support teaching and learning when using this textbook and are available at no extra cost. The Formation of Coalitions in the European Union Maren Kreutler, 2015-03-26 This book investigates why European associations form interest coalitions, which strategies these coalitions pursue to influence the EU institutions and how persistent they are over time. In this context, questions concerning the transparency of European decision making are approached. The field of European energy policy serves as empirical background, providing a valuable insight into a little researched area of European politics.

Decision-making in the European Community Emil Joseph Kirchner, 1992 In this first major assessment of EC decision making at the highest levels for ten years, Emil Kirchner examines the Council Presidency's role in European integration. The author demonstrates how the EC Council Presidency plays a crucial role in the integration process, enhanced by the Single European Act and the two Intergovernmental Conferences on EMU and Political Union. He evaluates the balance and distribution of power between national and Community actors and asks whether the Council Presidency is primarily an instrument to maintain national control of EC decision making rather than a device for promoting integration. He sheds light on the negotiations which led to the SEA and the two Intergovernmental Conferences and argues for a new interpretation of the relationship between the EC and its constituent states. EC decision making is not characterised by a transfer of powers from the national to the EC level but by a sharing of competences between national and Community institutions and a pooling of sovereignties among member governments that is analogous to co-operative federalism. Decision making in the European Community will be vital reading for political scientists and students interested in the EC and for all those seeking to understand European integration, potentially the 1990s' most important political development. The Politics of the European Union Herman Lelieveldt, Sebastiaan Princen, 2023-04-20 The European Union is a key player in determining policies and politics in Europe and yet understanding how it works remains a challenge. The Politics of the European Union introduces students to its functioning by showing the similarities and differences between the EU and national political systems Fully revised and updated in its third edition this introductory textbook uses the tools of comparative politics to explore the history theories institutions key actors politics and policy making of the EU This comparative approach enables students to apply their knowledge of domestic politics and broader debates in political science to better understand the EU Numerous real world examples guide students through the textbook and chapter briefings fact files and controversy boxes highlight the important and controversial issues in EU politics A companion website features free Navigating the EU exercises to guide students in their analysis of EU policy making
