Political Change Industrial Development:

Economic Growth and Political Change in Asia Graham Field, 2016-07-27 This book looks at the main factors which have contributed to the strikingly strong growth of Asian economies in the last twenty five years It considers the economic policies adopted to promote such growth arguing that it will become increasingly difficult to sustain this The author then examines the inequalities generated by economic growth before considering the dynamics of the four different types of political system which have evolved in Asia veiled authoritarianism market Stalinism emerging bourgeois democracy and elite democracy

Privatization and Political Change in Mexico Judith A. Teichman, 2010-11-23 Since 1983 Mexico has undergone a rapid and thorough economic restructuring program with privatization at the core The government has divested itself of hundreds of public companies increasing the role of private capital both domestic and foreign Supporters have argued that divestiture would have positive implications for Mexican democracy but Judith A Teichman concludes that political and economic power in Mexico is more concentrated and exclusionary than ever She uses extensive field research including interviews with top political and business leaders to describe and analyze the process by which the Mexican state has reformed its mammoth public enterprise sector

Managing Political Change Irene L. Gendzier, 2019-03-04 For nearly three decades policymakers and students have been concerned with Third World societies in transition Conventional interpretations of political change formalized in studies of political development have dominated approaches to analyzing such changes Yet argues the author these interpretations have been justly criticized as bankrupt and irrelevant to Third World realities Why are they reproduced How can one explain the belief that these approaches remain viable These are some of the questions addressed in this wideranging review of the literature of political development and the paradigms that have guided analysis of political change over the past thirty years Examining how political development theories are rooted in U S foreign policy domestic political trends and changes in postwar political science Dr Gendzier grounds the traditional approach to political development in recent history and politics Her analysis raises questions about how development doctrine is related to foreign policy as well as noting development theory s debt to cold war ideology and revisionist theories of liberal democracy Dr Gendzier s interpretation sheds light on the reasons for the current theoretical bias that favors approaching politics in terms of psychology and culture an approach that she states has had devastating effects on our understanding of politics

A Comparative Political Economy of Industrial Capitalism R. Mascarenhas, 2002-10-04 This comparative study of industrial capitalism is an examination of state economy relations in mixed economies ranging from the interventionist German and Japanese to the less interventionist Anglo American Following the postwar consensus that resulted in the golden age 1950 1973 and ended with the energy crisis the Anglo American economies adopted neoliberalism while Germany and Japan remained interventionist This resulted in the emergence of national types of capitalism While analyzing the increased competition between them R C Mascarenhas also notes the influence of globalization as well as alternative capitalism with the survival and re emergence of industrial districts Popular

Movements and Political Change in Mexico Joe Foweraker, Ann L. Craig, 1990 Covers the period from 1968 to 1989

Political Conflict and Development in East Asia and Latin America Richard Boyd, Galjart Benno, Tak-Wing Ngo, 2007-01-24 Long run processes of socio economic change generate prodigious problems of social conflict and social control and governments responsible for these processes must therefore manage the resultant conflict Consequently the success or failure of a government s management of such conflicts is a crucial factor in development outcomes This volume investigates the political struggle for development specifically in two vital regions East Asia and Latin America This analysis calls into question the dominant emphasis on institutional and cultural bases for stable growth A careful historical account of the two regions is presented which permits the rigorous testing of conventional wisdoms regarding development Of importance to a broad range of academics in the spheres of development studies politics political economy and sociology this book will also make an interesting read for those with a general interest in these areas Institutional Change and

Industrial Development in Central and Eastern Europe Anne Lorentzen, Brigitta Widmaier, Mihály Laki, 2018-12-21 Published in 1999 this is a collection of recent research results by acknowledged researchers in the field of enterprise transformation and industrial development in Central and Eastern Europe Support for Economic and Political Change in the China

Countryside Samuel James Eldersveld, Mingming Shen, 2001-01-01 Samuel J Eldersveld and Mingming Shen the authors of this important two wave study illuminate a unique and richly contoured view of Chinese attitudes about political and economic reform They base their findings on the responses of a panel of over 800 mass respondents approximately 1 300 interviews with villagers and 250 interviews with cadres The authors provide extensive analysis of their data and find that the level of popular support for reform and support for democratic values is surprisingly high Of particular interest is the examination of support for political specifically citizen participation contacting officials attending party and village meetings and voting for village committees The authors find significant variance in mass and cadres beliefs but Eldersveld and Shen s findings provide impressive new data for the study of economic and political development in China and the possibility of democracy in the future Asia's Innovation Systems in Transition Jan Vang, 2006-01-01 The success of Asian economies first Japan then Taiwan South Korea Singapore Hong Kong and more recently China and India has made it tempting to look for an Asian model of development However the strength of Asian development lies less in strategies that reproduce successful national systems of innovation and more in the capacity for institutional change to open up new development trajectories with greater emphasis on knowledge and learning The select group of contributors demonstrate that although there are important differences among Asian countries in terms of institutional set Handbook of Industrial Development Patrizio Bianchi, Sandrine Labory, Philip R. Tomlinson, 2023-01-13 Providing an overview of industrial development using a variety of different approaches and perspectives the Handbook of Industrial Development brings together expert contributors and highlights the current multiple and interdependent challenges that can only be addressed by an interdisciplinary approach. Chapters discuss the existing issues faced by industry following both the digital and environmental transitions, highlighting their regional roots and the interplay with the wider institutional framework.
