Marquette, 2003-11-04 In 1997 the World Bank announced a strategy to help its borrowers combat corruption despite earlier claims that work of this kind violated the Bank's non political mandate Despite many attempts to reshape corruption as an economic issue rather than a political one the non political mandate has never been satisfactorily addressed Heather Marquette argues that the Bank should focus in its strengths and avoid the more controversial components of its anti corruption programme which threaten its credibility Corruption, Global Security, and World Order Robert I. Comparing Political Corruption and Clientelism Junichi Kawata, 2017-03-02 Past modernization literature has assumed that corruption and clientelism reflect a pre modern social structure and could be referred to as a pathologic phenomenon of the political system Very few have considered corruption and clientelism as structural products of an interwoven connection between capital accumulation bureaucratic rationalization interest intermediation and political participation from below This volume analyzes key aspects of the debate such as should corruption and clientelism be evaluated as a lubricant in terms of administrative efficiency legitimate demands from the margins of society to redress social and economic inequality or to readdress economic development What would be the effect of strengthening policing to control political corruption Could electoral reform or a decentralization of government power be a cure for all These questions among others are answered in this comprehensive volume

Bureaucracy and Development Diana Suhardiman, 2014-12-26 The fall of the New Order government in 1998 and the political reform that followed posed substantial challenges for Indonesia's bureaucracy to continue fulfilling its mandate This book analyses the process of bureaucratic reform in the irrigation sector Using Irrigation Management Transfer policy as the entry point for analysis it documents and analyses the irrigation bureaucracy's ability to sustain its power and prominence in the sector's development amidst and against national and international pressures for reform The book argues that bureaucratic reform in the irrigation sector rather than attempting to change the bureaucracy's functioning in the image of national and global good governance perspectives and priorities should instead focus on linking the irrigation bureaucracy's everyday practice more effectively with farmers' needs and aspirations Reform efforts of the past decades show that

Indonesia's irrigation sector development cannot be redirected without the irrigation bureaucracy's knowledge experience and cooperation and without strengthening its downward accountability to farmer irrigators
