Political Ideology And Voting Behavior In the Age Of Jackson:

Political Ideology and Voting Behavior in the Age of Jackson Joel H. Silbey, 1973 Political Ideology and Voting Behavior in the Age of Jackson Joel H. Silbey, 1973 The Market Revolution in America Melvin Stokes, Melvin Stokes, Stephen Conway, 1996 The last decade has seen a major shift in the way nineteenth century American history is interpreted and increasing attention is being paid to the market revolution occurring between 1815 and the Civil War This collection of twelve essays by preeminent scholars in nineteenth century history aims to respond to Charles Sellers's The Market Revolution reflecting upon the historiographic accomplishments initiated by his work while at the same time advancing the argument across a range of fields The Rise and Fall of the White Republic Alexander Saxton, 2003 Saxton asks why white racism remained an ideological force in America long after the need to justify slavery and Western conquest had disappeared Electoral Behavior in Unreformed England John A. Phillips, 2014-07-14 This work examines the development of popular politics in four representative English towns between 1761 and 1802 The book addresses hitherto unanswered yet fundamental questions about the electorate and the electoral system of later eighteenth century England Originally published in 1982 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Wheeling Bridge Case Elizabeth Brand Monroe, 1992 Henry Clay Robert Vincent Remini, 1991 Great biography leaves an indelible view of the subject After Remini's masterful portrait Clay is unforgettable Donald B Cole Newsday The Commercialization of News in the Nineteenth Century Gerald J. Baldasty, 1992-11-15 The Commercialization of News in the Nineteenth Century traces the major transformation of newspapers from a politically based press to a commercially based press in the nineteenth century Gerald J Baldasty argues that broad changes in American society the national economy and the newspaper industry brought about this dramatic shift Increasingly in the nineteenth century news became a commodity valued more for its profitability than for its role in informing or persuading the public on political issues Newspapers started out as highly partisan adjuncts of political parties As advertisers replaced political parties as the chief financial support of the press they influenced newspapers in directing their content toward consumers especially women The results were recipes fiction contests and features on everything from sports to fashion alongside more standard news about politics Baldasty makes use of nineteenth century materials newspapers from throughout the era manuscript letters from journalists and politicians journalism and advertising trade publications government reports to document the changing role of the press during the period He identifies three important phases the partisan newspapers of the Jacksonian era 1825 1835 the transition of the press in the middle of the century and the influence of commercialization of the news in the last two decades of the century Racial Classification and History E. Nathaniel Gates, 1997 Explores the concept of race The term race which originally denoted genealogical or class identity has in the comparatively brief span of 300 years taken on an entirely new meaning In the wake of the Enlightenment it came to be applied to social groups This ideological transformation coupled with a dogmatic insistence that the groups so designated were natural and not socially created gave birth to the modern notion of races as genetically distinct entities The results of this view were the encoding of race and racial hierarchies in law literature and culture How racial categories facilitate social control The articles in the series demonstrate that the classification of humans according to selected physical characteristics was an arbitrary decision that was not based on valid scientific method They also examine the impact of colonialism on the propagation of the concept and note that racial categorization is a powerful social force that is often used to promote the interests of dominant social groups Finally the collection surveys how laws based on race have been enacted around the world to deny power to minority groups A multidisciplinary resource This collection of outstanding articles brings multiple perspectives to bear on race theory and draws on a wider range of periodicals than even the largest library usually holds Even if all the articles were available on campus chances are that a student would have to track them down in several libraries and microfilm collections Providing of course that no journals were reserved for graduate students out for binding or simply missing This convenient set saves students substantial time and effort by making available all the key articles in one reliable source Authoritative commentary The series editor has put together a balanced selection of the most significant works accompanied by expert commentary A general introduction gives important background information and outlines fundamental issues current scholarship and scholarly controversies Introductions to individual volumes put the articles in context and draw attention to germinal ideas and major shifts in the field After reading the material even a beginning student will have an excellent grasp of the basics of the subject Also available individually by volume 1 The Concept of Race in Natural and Social Science 0 8153 2600 9 288 pages 2 Cultural and Literary Critiques of the Concepts of Race 0 8153 2601 7 3 Racial Classification and History 0 8153 2602 5 4 The Judicial Isolation of the Racially Oppressed 0 8153 2599 1 Economics of Prohibition, The Mark Thornton, 2014 Examines the failure of Prohibition discusses how this analysis can be applied to the effects of illegal drugs on today's economy
