Feminism Naomi Black, 2019-05-15 In light of the history of three influential women s organizations in the United States England and France Naomi Black offers a provocative new interpretation of feminism She perceives two inherently different types of feminist thought equity feminism which incorporates women into existing male dominated ideologies such as liberalism Marxism and socialism and the less familiar social feminism which emphasizes women s distinctive experiences and values Examining the development of organizations previously considered traditional and nonpolitical the League of Women Voters the Women s Co operative Guild and the Union f minine civique et sociale black concludes that the social feminism which characterizes these groups is a genuinely radical approach to social change 21st Century Sociology: A

Reference Handbook Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2007 Publisher Description Citizenship and Democratization: Perspectives from Different Gender-Theoretical Approaches Eva Maria Hinterhuber, Jana Günther, 2024-01-30 The year 1918 was significant in many ways seeing the end of World War 1 At the same time the impact and transformational effects of this event enabled civil society activists and politically institutionalised actors in European countries to pick up the threads of democratic social movements and parliamentary aspirations and make use of political opportunity structures to obtain citizen rights for larger parts of the population One result of this process albeit with a difference between European states was that more groups in society gained suffrage Amongst those were large sections of the working class and women While the vote was won for some new social groups in European societies others were still excluded After one centennium of struggle for political participation we would like to discuss specific problems of politics of belonging The question concerning the full recognition of citizen rights was and continually is connected to ideas of a specific membership of a nation state a fact that denotes the particular problem of membership and non membership and of inside and outside This Research Topic will take account of this special field of tension of democratisation e g inclusion through exclusion from a perspective of social history political science gender studies and intersectionality approaches This analytical foil shall be used to examine the relationship between state or government action and civil society as well as the reproduction of social and political inequality despite increasing democratisation movements
