The October Revolution in Prospect and Retrospect John Marot,2012-06-08 In a series of probing analytical essays John Marot tracks the development of Bolshevism through the prism of pre 1917 intra Russian Social Democratic controversies in politics and philosophy For 1917 the author presents a critique of social historical interpretation of the Russian Revolution Turning to NEP Russia the author applies Robert Brenner s analysis of pre capitalist modes of production and concludes that neither Bukharin nor Trotsky s NEP premised programs of economic transformation and advance toward socialism were feasible At the same time he rejects the view that Stalinism was pre destined to supplant NEP Instead he hypothesises that the superior alternative to Stalinism was NEP without collectivization and the Five Year Plans a outcome that would have been possible had Bukharin and Trotsky joined forces to stop Stalin
