Provincial Party And Election Finance In Canada Royal Commission On Electoral Reform:

Media, Elections, And Democracy: Royal Commission on Electoral Reform Frederick J. Fletcher, 1991-01-01 Media Elections and Democracy examines campaign communication in selected industrial democracies Klaus Schoenbach Karen Siune Doris Graber and a host of authors around the world contribute critical overviews of the systems in their countries The studies deal with a wide range of issues in modern communication including the principles and practices of news and public affairs coverage and the impact of new technologies

Parties, Candidates, and Constituency Campaigns in Canadian Elections Anthony Sayers, 2011-11-01 Political scientists have traditionally examined the democratic process at the macro level With its unique micro level focus Parties Candidates and Constituency Campaigns in Canadian Elections provides the first systematic analysis of the local constituency campaigns that are the basis of elections and democracy in Canada By taking a detailed look at campaigns in seven B C ridings during the 1988 free trade election the last under the old three party system Anthony Sayers develops a typology of candidates and campaigns The dynamics of local associations nominations and campaigns including those of former prime minister Kim Campbell and New Democrat Svend Robinson as well as key strategic events and the role of the media are reconstructed from interviews with candidates campaign managers party strategists volunteers and journalists The 1993 and 1997 elections are then invoked to show that the insights drawn about the nature of constituency politics remain relevant to the new party system This important contribution to the study of Canadian elections forcefully argues that knowledge of the dynamics at the local level is essential to a full understanding of Canadian polity its underlying social basis and the factors that determine successful election campaigns As such Parties Candidates and Constituency Campaigns in Canadian Elections will intrigue not only political scientists and students of Canadian politics but also election candidates and party strategists

Party Funding and Campaign Financing in International Perspective K D Ewing, Samuel Issacharoff, 2006-01-19 This volume deals with questions of political party funding and campaign financing issues which arouse controversy in many parts of the world How are the central actors in the political arena supposed to gather the funds necessary to operate effectively on behalf of their chosen political ends And how may they spend money in furtherance of their political objectives The aim of this volume the first in a new series of Columbia University London University collaborative projects is to explore these issues in the specific context of a number of national settings The studies presented here show that financing questions cannot be addressed independent of the constitutional conventions of the country the nature of the political parties in the country and the means of access to publication and the media in any given nation The national studies in this volume reveal a rich diversity in the approach to regulation in Australia Canada the European Union Japan New Zealand Quebec the United Kingdom and the United States The topicality of the issues considered is reflected in the fact that since the book was first mooted there have been major decisions of the US Supreme Court and the Supreme Court of Canada as well as an investigation and report by the Electoral

Commission in the United Kingdom all of which have a direct bearing on the legal and policy issues discussed in this book

Money, Politics, and Democracy Lisa Young, Harold J. Jansen, 2011-02-08 In 2004 Jean Chrétien's Liberals banned unions and corporations from contributing financially to political parties In 2008 opposition leaders were prepared to defeat the Conservative government over its proposal to eliminate public subsidies to parties In Money Politics and Democracy Lisa Young and Harold Jansen lead a distinguished group of political scientists in exploring the issues that led to the showdown Are publicly funded parties compatible with democracy What effect have campaign finance reforms had on the balance of power between parties and donors on the relationship between national parties and local organizations on electoral competition This timely volume reveals that the financial centre of gravity for political parties is shifting between national and local organizations as individual donors replace unions and corporations To survive financially parties must now maximize their seats and votes Contributors show that campaign finance reforms have shaped party organization and electoral competition contributing to successive minority governments

Reforming Electoral Democracy Canada. Royal Commission on Electoral Reform and Party Financing, 1991 Provincial Party and Election Finance in Canada F. Leslie Seidle, Canada. Royal Commission on Electoral Reform and Party Financing, 1991 This document discusses party financing in Quebec with an analysis of the financial report of parties 1977-89 initiatives and challenges to the Ontario party and campaign finance system paying for the politics of British Columbia the evolution of political financing regulation in New Brunswick and party financing in Alberta focusing on low impact legislation

Comparative Issues in Party and Election Finance F. Leslie Seidle, 1991-01-01 This book is one of 23 volumes of research commissioned by the Royal Commission on Electoral Reform and Party Financing and one of five volumes within this series dealing specifically with party and election finance Because the issue of money in elections is as old as democracy the experience of other countries is instructive The studies in this volume offer Canadians information about approaches to funding political parties and elections in the United States and Western Europe The studies by Herbert Alexander and Robert Mutch examine how the United States has approached issues such as contribution limits and the disclosure of election finances The latter study provides explicit comparisons to Canada noting the constitutional role of the Supreme Court in each country Jane Jensen draws on Western European experience to propose and assess reforms for the public funding for party foundations is documented by Michael Pinto-Duschinsky The studies approach their material from a historical perspective noting the uniqueness of the constitutions institutions and traditions of the countries reviewed The authors provide background essential to any consideration of whether foreign experience might serve as a model for Canada

Campaign And Party Finance In North America And Western Europe Arthur B. Gunlicks, 2019-04-08 This book provides information about how policies and practices regarding public financing abroad focusing on North America and several Western European countries can help Americans develop their own ideas about reform possibilities

Reforming Electoral Democracy: Without special title Canada. Royal

Commission on Electoral Reform and Party Financing,1991 Rights and Parliamentary Systems in Canada and Beyond Emmett Macfarlane,2025-08-26 Rights and Parliamentary Systems in Canada and Beyond brings together political scientists and legal scholars to explore rights and their limitations along with the governmental and legislative processes affecting them within Canada s parliamentary system It also examines how these elements shape broader institutional relationships under the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and in comparative perspective This interdisciplinary volume offers valuable in depth analyses of timely issues cases and controversies involving rights and institutional dynamics The book employs an array of methods including legal analysis qualitative case studies content analysis legal theory research interviews and policy analysis With a forward looking perspective Rights and Parliamentary Systems in Canada and Beyond investigates how rights based processes influence specific policies and offers new insights into the framing of rights including administrative law and Aboriginal treaty rights during the COVID 19 pandemic It also explores how aspects of parliamentary democracy affect governments legislators and the public The book ultimately reveals how the institutional relationships at stake operate to protect or fail to protect rights in relation to government policy objectives Pour Une Démocratie Électorale Renouvelée : Rapport Final Canada. Royal Commission on Electoral Reform and Party Financing,1991 This document discusses the objectives of electoral democracy the democratic rights of voters access to elected office equality and efficacy of the vote political parties as primary political organizations fairness in the electoral process and strengthening public confidence in the integrity of the electoral process It also addresses the registration of voters the voting process administering the vote a register of voters aboriginal constituencies applying the regulatory framework for election expenses and the reporting of political finance communication issues election law enforcement and direct democracy in the electoral process Interest Groups and Elections in Canada F. Leslie Seidle,1991-01-01 The two studies in this book explore the nature and influence of special interest groups They consider different aspects of the question In the context of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms how can the laws intended to secure a fair electoral process be reconciled with freedom of expression Democratic Rights and Electoral Reform in Canada Michael Cassidy,Canada. Royal Commission on Electoral Reform and Party Financing,1991-06 Royal Commission on Electoral Reform and Party Financing Canadian Political Parties in the Constituencies R. Kenneth Carty,Canada. Royal Commission on Electoral Reform and Party Financing,1991 Alberta Premiers of the Twentieth Century University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center,2004 From the optimism associated with provincial status in 1905 through the trials of Depression and war the boom times of the post war period and the economic vagaries of the 1980s and the 1990s the twentieth century was a time of growth and hardship development and change for Alberta and its people And during the century twelve men from a variety of political parties and from very different backgrounds led the government of this province The names of some like William Aberhart Ernest Manning and Peter Lougheed are still household names while others like Arthur Sifton Herbert Greenfield and Richard Reid have been all but forgotten Yet each in his unique way for better or for worse helped to mould and steer the destiny of the province he governed These are their stories

Strengthening Canadian Democracy Institute for Research on Public Policy, 2005 Reconsidering provincial and federal debates about democratic reform alternatives Canadian Parties in Transition, Fifth Edition Alain-G Gagnon, Brian Tanguay, 2024-10-01 The fifth edition of Canadian Parties in Transition continues and enriches the work of earlier editions in bringing together a highly respected group of scholars to offer a comprehensive account of the development of party politics in Canada The book addresses the origin and the evolution of the Canadian party system and discusses how that system has been impacted by regionalism brokerage politics and political marketing It focuses on the competing ideological currents that occupy the political stage while also paying attention to the role of third parties in federal politics Contributors address the representation and democracy through an exploration of voting systems direct democracy the role occupied by constituencies gender politics and the distinct Quebec dynamics in the federal party system Finally the book analyses topical issues such as electoral participation social movements right wing populist parties political campaigning and digital party politics This new edition has been thoroughly revised and updated to reflect ongoing transformations and includes nineteen new contributing authors and coverage of seven new topics Canadian Parties in Transition presents a multi faceted image of party dynamics electoral behaviour political marketing and representative democracy Women and Political Representation in Canada Manon Tremblay, Caroline Andrew, 1998-02-13 This collection of essays explores the often antagonistic relationship between women and political life in Canada While women make up little over half of the total population in Canada they are in many ways conspicuous by their absence from the Canadian political scene Published in English Recent Social Trends in Canada, 1960-2000 Lance W. Roberts, Rodney A. Clifton, Barry Ferguson, 2005-08-15 The introduction summarizes and locates the major waves of change The authors then document each trend in relation to eighteen thematic groups that include age community women labour management stratification social relations the state mobilizing institutions social forces ideologies households lifestyle leisure education integration and attitudes and values
