Evangelicals and Liberation Revisited João B. Chaves, 2013-03-18 Despite the fact that the theological gains of Latin American Liberation Theology LALT have been incorporated into several theologies around the world many North Atlantic evangelicals still consider LALT a heresy The underlying reason for the lack of positive engagement between North Atlantic Evangelical Theology in general and American Evangelical Theology in particular and LALT is the mistaken perception that LALT and evangelical theology are necessarily contradictory In Evangelicals and Liberation Revisited Joao Chaves analyzes instances of the evangelical liberationist interaction and examines the generally suspicious responses given to LALT by North Atlantic Evangelicals Evangelicals who think of LALT as a heresy have failed to look not only into the diversity that exists among liberationists but also into the different theological expressions within their own movement Joao Chaves argues convincingly that if evangelicals think about both liberation theology and their own theological commitments critically then they will be able to recognize that LALT can be an indispensable ally in their commitment to following God

Safari Based Theology Dr. Enos Lwamba, 2012-12-21 In Safari based Theology Dr Enos Lwamba has developed an approach to theology and mission based on his proposed safari motif for the development of theology and mission Based on his Ph D dissertation The Safari Motif in the Development of Theology in Africa Dr Lwamba argues that God has used a series of divine redemptive safaris in the Bible to reveal Himself progressively to people The author develops his proposed motif around a tri dimensional conception of reality and time and explores a threefold aspect of the safari mwanzo sasa and mwisho which provide keys to the African mindset He explores the various meanings and uses of the safari idea from both a biblical and theological perspective In addition to the literal safaris journey is an analogy of the church and believers are on a divine safari individually and collectively The safari model highlights the absolute necessity of the biblical message and the contextual situation to help Christians live effective and fruitful lives in society now and in future Inspired by both John Mbitis The African Concept of Time and Paul Hieberts The Flaw of the Excluded Middle the author utilizes biblical theological historical and contextual sources to make his point In the philosophical aspect of the safari the author develops his notion of an African conception of time modeled on the cultural safari idea which he relates to development of theology and mission He refutes the western influenced or commercially based notion that safari refers to a game hunting or tourist expedition to Africa Dr Lwamba promotes the argument that the philosophical framework and methodology drawn from the safari approach provides a more effective way of doing theology and mission in Africa and other contextual situations He also draws parallels to the safari concept from such sources as Augustines City of God John Bunyans The Pilgrims Progress and others in a refreshing and original style that the reader will find engaging The motif provides interpretational and practical application tools as it harmonizes the unity of the biblical message Its practical appeal makes Safari Based Theology a must read for Christians and others interested in their daily journey of faith The author contends that just as the idea of logos described the mindset conception of divine truth and aspirations of the Greek mind the concept of safari does the same for the African This book is highly recommended for pastors missionaries and teachers as well as students of Bible and theology culture and missions and other related disciplines

Women in Pentecostal and Charismatic Ministry, 2016-11-01 Women in Pentecostal and Charismatic Ministry Informing a Dialogue on Gender Church and Ministry co edited by Margaret English de Alminana and Lois E Olena concerns women and Pentecostalism It introduces the way the Pentecostal charismatic movement has been shaped by and has shaped women from its beginning and offers a wide variety of responses to the opportunities and limitations women have experienced in their commitment to religious service Scholars activists leaders and exemplars from a variety of disciplines reflect on the question How have women responded to a religious context that has depended upon their gifts while at the same time limited their voices and perspectives This volume offers missing and or silent voices an important corrective and a way forward to shape gender focused discussions Contributors are Estrela Yvonne Alexander Peter Althouse Linda M Ambrose Melissa L Archer Amy C Artman Denise A Austin Kate Bowler Barbara Cavaness Parks Loralie Robinson Crabtree Naomi Dowdy Margaret English de Alminana Beth A Elizabeth Grant Jacqueline Grey Mimi R Haddad Jennifer A Miskov Stephanie L Nance Lois E Olena Ava Kate Oleson Joy E A Qualls and Zachary Michael Tackett

Transformation After Lausanne Al Tizon, 2008 Lausanne 74 inspired evangelicals around the world to take seriously the full implications of the Gospel for mission This was especially true of a worldwide network of radical evangelical mission theologians and practitioners whose post Lausanne reflections found harbour in the notion of Mission as Transformation This missiology integrated evangelism and social concern like no other and it lifted up theological voices coming from the Two Thirds World to places of prominence This book documents the definitive gatherings theological tensions and social forces within and without evangelicalism that led up to Mission as Transformation And it does so through a global local grid that points the way toward greater holistic mission in the 21st century

BOOK JACKET Learning about Theology from the Third World William A. Dyrness, 1990 Designed to introduce Western Christians to discussions about theology going on in the Third World this book gives major overviews of the theology of Africa Latin America and Asia

Earthen Vessels Joel A. Carpenter, Wilbert R. Shenk, 2012-12-01 Contrary to popular impressions the days of the missionary are far from over North American churches send more missionaries than ever before and 90 percent of them are evangelicals who are not affiliated with the mainline Protestant mission boards The first major historical treatment of the distinctly evangelical wing of twentieth century American missions Earthen Vessels truly breaks new ground Covering territory that missions histories have scarcely explored yet the distinguished historians contributing to this volume portray the North American including Canadian evangelical missionary enterprise from the Student Volunteer Movement to the very recent past The book traces the influences of premillennial eschatology the fundamentalist modernist controversies the rise of independent missions and conservative denominational boards the role of World War II and America's rise to world power the recent development of a distinctly evangelical theology of missions and the growing influence of the Two Thirds World's evangelical leaders While this volume certainly does not contain the last word on these subjects in a number of areas it does offer very nearly the first look With its fresh subject matter and new historical interpretations Earthen Vessels will interest church history scholars and students missionaries and ministers and any others who wish to know more about American missions
