Public Theology for the 21st Century Duncan B. Forrester, William Storrar, Andrew Morton, 2004-01-01 The book is a unique stocktaking by a leading international group of theologians social scientists and other scholars on issues facing public theology at the beginning of the 21st century It combines retrospect and prospect in that it reflects on the issues and approaches that have characterized public theology in the 20th century especially its latter half and attempts to anticipate those which will or should come to the fore in the 21st century seeking to discern continuities and changes Three opening chapters deal with the overall theme of public or political theology with Jurgen Moltmann giving a critical historical account from the Second World War onwards Raymond Plant relating such theology to cultural pluralism and Andrew Morton illustrating it from the work of Duncan Forrester These are followed by pairs of contributions relating public theology to more specific topicsr History Technology and Creation Globalization Spirituality Punishment and Forgiveness Medical Ethics Tolerance and Human Rights Social Exclusion and Equality

Faith-based Radicalism Christiane Timmerman, 2007 Terror attacks against Western symbols of power suicide terrorism in Chechnya or bombing of abortion clinics in the United States these are a few of the violent religious outbursts that the media never seem to stop broadcasting While these outbursts are mostly linked to Islamic extremism it should however be acknowledged that every religion has its own violent side Despite all the events the media are too prompt to show us it would be dishonest and insensible not to accept that every religion has also a potential for religious peace building and communal renewal How can it be explained then that religions sometimes react violently against the society surrounding them by trying to overthrow it while at some other times they willingly help and try to build a better world for everyone The University Centre Saint Ignatius Antwerp organised an interdisciplinary summer seminar in September 2005 and gathered senior scholars all experts in their own fields and junior scholars who will be the experts of tomorrow from all over the world to discuss these burning issues The seminar focused on miscellaneous topics all pointing towards the question of religion and society like literalism and the Holy texts the ambivalence of faith based radicalism the psychology of religion and terrorism nationalism and religion and religious social movements Publisher

A Theology of Community Organizing Chris Shannahan, 2013-11-12 The rising importance of community organizing in the US and more recently in Britain has coincided with the developing significance of social movements and identity politics debates about citizenship social capital civil society and religion in the public sphere At a time when participation in formal political process and membership of faith groups have both declined dramatically community organizing has provided a new opportunity for small community groups marginalized urban communities and people of faith to engage in effective political action through the developments of inter faith and cross cultural coalitions of groups In spite of its renewed popularity little critical attention has been paid to community organizing This book places community organizing within debates about the role of religion in the public sphere and the rise of public theology in recent years The book explores the history methodology and achievements of community organizing engaging in a series of conversations with key community organizers in the US and Britain This volume breaks new ground by beginning to articulate a cross cultural and inter faith Theology for Community Organizing that arises from fresh readings of Liberation Theology Theological Reflection: Methods, 2nd Edition Elaine Graham, Heather Walton , Frances Ward , 2019-02-27 Theological Reflections Methods offers a comprehensive collection of models of theological reflection By bringing this diverse collection together in one place the editors create a unique reference work that allows a clear and visible contrast and comparison as each model is treated formally and in a standard format Throughout each chapter the distinguishing features of the model are examined the genealogy and origins are discussed worked examples of the model applied to contemporary theology are provided and critical commentary future trends and exercises and questions are provided Now firmly established as an essential text on theological reflection this new edition has been revised and updated with a new introduction updated examples and refreshed bibliographies Cultures of Eschatology Veronika Wieser, Vincent Eltschinger, Johann Heiss, 2020-07-20 In all religions in the medieval West as in the East ideas about the past the present and the future were shaped by expectations related to the End The volumes Cultures of Eschatology explore the many ways apocalyptic thought and visions of the end intersected with the development of pre modern religio political communities with social changes and with the emergence of new intellectual and literary traditions The two volumes present a wide variety of case studies from the early Christian communities of Antiquity through the times of the Islamic invasion and the Crusades and up to modern receptions from the Latin West to the Byzantine Empire from South Yemen to the Hidden Lands of Tibetan Buddhism Examining apocalypticism messianism and eschatology in medieval Christian Islamic Hindu and Buddhist communities the contributions paint a multi faceted picture of End Time scenarios and provide their readers with a broad array of source material from different historical contexts The first volume Empires and Scriptural Authorities examines the formation of literary and visual apocalyptic traditions and the role they played as vehicles for defining a community s religious and political enemies The second volume Time Death and Afterlife focuses on key topics of eschatology death judgment afterlife and the perception of time and its end It also analyses modern readings and interpretations of eschatological concepts Wiley Blackwell Companion to Political Theology William T. Reading Texts, Seeking Wisdom

David F. Ford, Graham Stanton, 2004 Eighteen leading scripture scholars and theologians engage with key issues and texts to do with scripture and theology They look at how the Bible and theology have come together in the past in Judaism the early Church the Middle Ages early modernity and the 20th century How is current biblical scholarship to be related to past insights and modern methods Contributors debate how wisdom is to be related to faith and to reason

Voices from the Borderland Chris Shannahan, 2016-04-01 Urban theology affirms the importance of context notably the place of the city in theological reflection However it has often been confined to particular contexts or theological camps and thus failed to engage with the fluidity of contemporary urban societies Voices from the Borderland presents an overview of urban theology arguing that the twenty first century demands a dialogical model of theology that enacts progressive change The volume draws on studies of the multicultural and multi faith British urban experience and situates these within the wider international context The works of influential theologians in the field are examined and the dialogue between theology globalisation post colonialism postmodernism and post religious urban culture critically explored The volume is unique in bringing together urban liberation theology urban black theology reformist urban theology globalisation urban theology and post religious urban theology
