Radicalism Anti Racism And Representation:

Radicalism, Anti-Racism and Representation Alastair Bonnett, 2013-07-23 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Radicalism, Anti-Racism and Representation Alastair Bonnett, 2023-02-14 First published in 1993 Radicalism Anti Racism and Representation is a study set within a wider political context for the discussion of racial representation and anti racism The second half of the book is devoted to interview based exploration of the ambiguities and political characteristics of race equality consciousness amongst public educators It is shown that there is no one anti racism Different ideals and assumptions have been arrived at within different historical and geographical contexts It is suggested that this intellectual plurality provides a resource for those wishing to rethink anti racism in the light of its contemporary malaise The study also explores and explains the development of self critical reflexive anti racist and radical consciousness amongst educators The book provides the first sociological study of anti racism Indeed it is the first to provide a substantive critique of anti racism from outside the New Right It is also the first to look at this phenomenon geographically and to compare anti racism in multiracial and white areas This book will be of interest to students of human geography sociology history ethnic studies and race studies War Narratives in Post-Conflict Societies Michal

Mochtak, 2024-02-29 This book studies war narratives and their role in the political arenas of post conflict societies with a focus on the former Yugoslavia How do politicians in postwar societies talk about the past war How do they discursively represent vulnerable social groups created by the conflict Does the nature of this representation depend on the politicians ideology personal characteristics or their record of combat service The book answers these questions by pairing natural language processing tools and large corpora of parliamentary debates collected in three southeast European post conflict societies Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia and Serbia Using the latest advances in computer science the book explores patterns in the war discourse of the political elites of these countries and discusses how politicians talk about war in terms of common narratives and shared frameworks Mapping over 20 years of parliamentary debates the book presents a new perspective on the role of the legacies of war in public space and develops theoretical arguments about reconciliation in post conflict societies The wars of the 1990s and the breakup of Yugoslavia have created three totally different settings for remembering the past conflicts in these countries despite their common history It is a story of victorious battles Croatia past grievances Bosnia Herzegovina and denial Serbia showing the different flavors of past wars in various national contexts that are symptomatic of many post conflict societies in different parts of the world This book will be of much interest to students of war and conflict studies southeastern European politics discourse analysis and international relations Children's Publishing and Black Britain, 1965-2015 Karen Sands-O'Connor, 2017-06-23 This book examines a critical period in British children's publishing from the earliest days of dedicated publishing firms for Black British audiences to the beginnings of the Black Lives Matter movement in the UK Taking a historical approach that includes education acts Black protest community publishing and children's literature prizes the study investigates the motivation behind both independent and mainstream publishing firm decisions to produce books for a specifically Black British audience Beginning with a consideration of early reading schemes that incorporated Black and Asian characters the book continues with a history of one of the earliest presses to publish for children Bogle L'Ouverture Other chapters look at the influence of community based and independent presses the era of multiculturalism and anti racism the effect of racially motivated violence on children's publishing and the dubious benefit of awards for Black British publishing The volume will appeal to children's literature scholars librarians teachers education policy makers and Black British historians Ethnic and Racial Studies Today Martin Bulmer, John Solomos, 2013-10-18 This important collection addresses recent developments in the teaching studying and presentation of race across many disciplines including sociology politics social geography cultural studies and philosophy Drawing on the latest research in all these areas the authors provide a comprehensive account of key controversies and debates and pinpoint new directions in research and scholarship that are likely to shape the study of race and ethnicity well into the next century

Discourses of Antiracism in France Catherine Lloyd, 2018-10-26 First published in 1998 this book is an examination of antiracist discourses and practices in France It sets out to trace the development of post war French antiracism through the life of antiracist organizations setting this within a broader historical political and social context It breaks new ground in that it analyses antiracism as a body of ideas in its own right rather than as a mirror image of racism The author uses previously unpublished archival material from French organizations combined with observations from current events She argues that antiracist discourses and practices are structured around four main themes discrimination representation solidarity and hegemony While perceptions of discrimination have evolved into complex understandings of social exclusion the representational functions of antiracist groups were challenged by immigrant workers movements themselves Solidarity remained central to antiracist practices in different political contexts Underpinning these features lies a hegemonic social project through which antiracists have sought to promote a common sense through political and educational campaigns The author concludes that French antiracism although constantly changing and refocusing is now a pluralist transversal hegemonic movement and an important component of civil society Transnational Ties Michael Peter Smith, John Eade, 2017-09-08 Cities are key sites of the transnational ties that increasingly connect people places and projects across the globe They provide opportunities and constraints within which transnational actors and networks operate and nodes linking wider social formations traverse national borders This book brings together a series of richly textured ethnographic studies that suggest new ways to situate and historicize transnationalism identify new pathways to transnational urbanism and map the contours of translocal interregional and diasporic connections not previously studied The transnational ties treated in this book truly span the globe giving concrete meaning to the phrase globalization from below How have the contributors to this book conceptualized the wider context informing the conduct of their ethnographically grounded multi sited research on the relationship between cities migration and transnationalism Several interrelated contextual dimensions have been singled out as affecting the opportunities and constraints experienced by transnational migrant subjects Socio spatially in several of these chapters the political economic context now called neoliberal globalization is shown to be a key driving force creating conditions that necessitate facilitate or impede migration foster trans local economic ties and create new inter regional interdependencies e g new South South and East East transnational ties The changing historical context of both migrating groups and the cities and regions they move across are central to the study of the interplay of urban change and migrant transnationalism The historical particularities of migrant recruitment migration histories migratory narratives and changing gender and class relations all affect the character and geography of transnational migration with an impact on the social structures of community formation This is a pioneering effort in the Comparative Urban and Community Research series

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World

Working through Whiteness Cynthia Levine-Rasky, 2012-02-01 What is whiteness What is gained by claiming it as a critical perspective in anti racism work How do whiteness studies both redeem and assert the white subject Working through Whiteness explores these questions through essays by Canadian American British and Australian scholars reflecting the broad array of academic inquiry into whiteness in the areas of law ethics education feminism politics psychology sociology criminology and social geography Rarely has knowledge of whiteness as the practice of social domination been drawn from this far and wide By embracing the leading edge in critical theory this book is a crucial addition to the growing literature on whiteness

Race and Antiracism in Black British and British Asian Literature Dave Gunning, 2012-01-01 Race and Antiracism in Black British and British Asian Literature offers the first comprehensive exploration of the cultural impact of the politics of race and antiracism in recent novels by black British and British Asian writers It examines works by Zadie Smith Caryl Phillips Nadeem Aslam Ferdinand Dennis and others arguing that an understanding of how race and ethnicity function in contemporary Britain can only be gained through attention to antiracism and the ways it conditions racial categories identities and models of behavior Looking at topics such as the role of Africa the reception of Islam and the meaning of multiculturalism Dave Gunning offers a detailed engagement with the nuances of antiracism and their effects on British literature and culture
