High Stakes Vic Flinham, 2008-10-15 After the dust of World War II had settled the military position of the UK was far from straightforward It was of course allied to the USA and part of NATO but it was at odds with the former in maintaining an Empire and the two nations also had competing oil interests in the Middle East The UK's engagement in war after 1945 was thus a strange mixture ranging from homeland security through insular actions within the colonies or protectorates to preserve empire to playing a major role in confronting the USSR The types of active involvement of the RAF Fleet Air Arm and Army Air Corps between 1945 and 1995 include the following with examples Maintaining Local Stability Greece Netherlands East Indies Maintaining Empire Malaya Kenya Defending Empire Borneo Defending Interests Suez Kuwait Homeland Security Northern Ireland air defence Confrontation Berlin Airlift Korea Covert Action Albania strategic reconnaissance Humanitarian and Peacekeeping Jordan Cyprus Development of Deterrent Bombs bombers and missiles

The Bombing Of Brittany: Solving The Wrong Problem Major Jeremiah S. Heathman, 2014-08-15 As a result of the Allied bombing campaign against Nazi submarine bases during the Second World War the cities of Brest Lorient and Saint Nazaire were nearly completely destroyed Despite thousands of bombing missions all three submarine bunkers still stand today This monograph examines the effectiveness of the Allied bombing campaign against German submarine bases in Brittany by analyzing the campaign through the use of a design methodology Research is broken down into three frames the operational approach the operational environment and the problem frame The first frame provides an account of the bombing missions and effects Next an overview of the operational environment is conducted by exploring the historical context of Brittany German construction efforts and Allied institutional barriers The study concludes by examining the problem frame which entails how the Allies perceived their operational problem and developed an approach based on their understanding Ultimately the Allies failed to accurately identify their problem and developed an ineffective approach towards defeating the threat Had the Allies incorporated design thinking into their planning and execution they may have developed an effective campaign towards defeating the Nazi U boat threat rather than solving the wrong problem RAF Fighter Command 1936-1968 Norman L.
