Air Power Supremo William Pyke, 2022-04-13 Sir John Slessor was one of the twentieth century's most distinguished wartime commanders and incisive military thinkers and William Pyke's comprehensive new biography reveals how he earned this remarkable reputation Slessor a polio victim who always walked with a stick became a First World War pilot in the Sudan and on the Western Front and a squadron and wing commander in India between the wars When aerial warfare was still a new concept he was one of the first to develop practical tactics and strategies in its application In the Second World War as the Commander in Chief of Coastal Command during the Battle of the Atlantic and the RAF in the Mediterranean during the Italian and Balkan campaigns he made a remarkable contribution to the success of Allied air power Then after the war as a senior commander he established himself as one of the foremost experts on strategic bombing and nuclear deterrence That is why this insightful biography of a great British airman and his achievements is so timely and important as we enter a new era of strategic doubts and deterrence at the beginning of the twenty first century William Pyke follows each stage of Slessor's brilliant career as a pilot and commander in vivid detail In particular he concentrates on Slessor's writings from his treatise on the application of air power in support of land armies to his thinking on nuclear deterrence and Western strategy

Bomber Command 1939-1940 Gordon Thorburn, 2013-09-16 For Bomber Command the term Phoney War never really meant much Five Blenheims of 107 Squadron were among the blood and bullets the day after war was declared and only one came back On 14 December 1939 in a disastrous raid on shipping 99 Squadron lost six Wellingtons with only three survivors out of thirty six crew Even worse in the biggest air battle so far 18 December Wilhelmshaven five Wellingtons of 9 Squadron went down four of 37 Squadron and two of 149 Squadron Bomber Command lost sixty eight aircraft and crews in action in the four war months of 1939 and a further seventy eight in accidents In the months up to the French surrender losses rose spectacularly as the Germans triumphed wherever they went In a few hours on 14 May resisting the Blitzkrieg forty seven Fairey Battles and Bristol Blenheims were shot from the sky Through the Scandinavian defence in France and Belgium at Dunkirk and at last over Germany for Bomber Command there was no Phoney War It was real war from the start
