Motivation in Organizational Behavior Craig C. Pinder, 2014-07-17 This second edition of the best selling textbook on Work Motivation in Organizational Behavior provides an update of the critical analysis of the scientific literature on this topic and provides a highly integrated treatment of leading theories including their historical roots and progression over the years A heavy emphasis is placed on the notion that behavior in the workplace is determined by a mix of factors many of which are not treated in texts on work motivation such as frustration and violence power love and sex Examples from current and recent media events are numerous and intended to illustrate concepts and issues related to work motivation emotion attitudes and behavior Quarterly Bulletin British Psychological Society, 1993 Understanding Anger Disorders

Raymond DiGiuseppe, Raymond Chip Tafrate, 2007 Since classical times philosophers and physicians have identified anger as a human frailty that can lead to violence and human suffering but with the development of a modern science of abnormal psychology and mental disorders it has been written off as merely an emotional symptom and excluded from most accepted systems of psychiatric diagnosis Yet despite the lack of scientific recognition anger related violence is often in the news and courts are increasingly mandating anger management treatment It is time for a fresh scientific examination of one of the most fundamental human emotions and what happens when it becomes pathological and this thorough persuasive book offers precisely such a probing analysis Using both clinical data and a variety of case studies esteemed anger researchers Raymond A DiGiuseppe and Raymond Chip Tafrate argue for a new diagnostic classification Anger Regulation and Expression Disorder that will help bring about clinical improvements and increased scientific understanding of anger After situating anger in both historical and emotional contexts they report research that supports the existence of several subtypes of the disorder and review treatment outcome studies and new interventions to improve treatment The first book that fully explores anger as a clinical phenomenon and provides a reliable set of assessment criteria it represents a major step toward establishing the clear definitions and scientific basis necessary for assessing diagnosing and treating anger disorders Affect Regulation and the Origin of the Self Allan N. Schore, 2015-11-19 For over three decades Allan N Schore has authored numerous volumes chapters and articles on regulation theory a biopsychosocial model of the development psychopathogenesis and treatment of the implicit subjective self The theory is grounded in the integration of psychology psychiatry and neuroscience and it is now being used by both clinicians to update psychotherapeutic models and by researchers to generate research First published in 1994 this pioneering volume represented the inaugural expression of his interdisciplinary model and has since been hailed by a number of scientific and clinical disciplines as a groundbreaking and paradigm shifting work This volume appeared at a time when the problem of emotion ignored for most of the last century was finally beginning to be addressed by science including the emergent field of affective neuroscience After a century of the dominance of the verbal left brain it presented a detailed characterization of the early developing right brain and its unique social emotional and survival functions not only in infancy but across all later stages of the human life span It also offered a scientifically testable and clinically relevant model of the development of the human unconscious mind Affect Regulation and the Origin of the Self acts as a keystone and foundation for all of Schore's later writings as every subsequent book article and chapter that followed represented expansions of this seminal work Motivation and Action Jutta Heckhausen, Heinz Heckhausen, 2018-03-27 This third edition provides translations of all chapters of the most recent fifth German edition of Motivation and Action including several entirely new chapters It provides comprehensive coverage of the history of motivation and introduces up to date theories and new research findings Early sections provide a broad introduction to and deep understanding of the field of motivation psychology mapping out different perspectives and research traditions Subsequent chapters examine major themes of human motivation including achievement affiliation and power motivation as well as the fundamentals of motivation psychology such as motivated and goal oriented behaviors implicit and explicit motives and the regulation of development In addition the book discusses the roles of motivation in three practical fields school and college the workplace and sports Topics featured in this text include Social Relationships and its effects on sexual or intimacy motivation Conscious and unconscious motivators of behavior Drives and incentives in the fields of achievement intimacy sociability and power How the biochemistry and structures of our brain shape motivated behavior How to engage in intentional goal directed behavior The potential and limits of motivation and self direction in shaping our lives Motivation and Action Third Edition is a must have resource for undergraduate and graduate students as well as researchers in the fields of motivation psychology cognitive psychology and social psychology as well as personality psychology and agency About the Editor Jutta Heckhausen is the daughter of Heinz Heckhausen who published Motivation and Action as a monograph in 1980 and who died in 1988 just before the 2nd edition came out Dr Heckhausen received her Ph D in 1985 from the University of Strathclyde Glasgow with a dissertation about early mother child interaction and did her Habilitation in 1996 at the Free University of Berlin with a monograph about developmental regulation in adulthood Dr Heckhausen worked for many years at the Max Planck Institute for Human Development in Berlin conducting research about the role of motivation in lifespan development She is currently a professor of psychology at the University of California Irvine
