Railway Across The Equator The Story Of The East African Line:

Railway Across the Equator Mohamed Amin, Alastair Matheson, 1986 This enthralling story is a fascinating narrative illustrated with superb photographs telling of the dramas and dangers involved in the construction of the line as well as looking at the different generations of locomotives and rolling stock used on the line Communications in Africa, 1880-1939 (set) David Sunderland, 2018-10-24 This collection presents rare documents relating to the development of various forms of communication across Africa by the British as part of their economic investment in Africa Railways and waterways are examined Communications in Africa, 1880-1939, Volume 1 David Sunderland, 2019-01-15 This collection presents rare documents relating to the development of various forms of communication across Africa by the British as part of their economic investment in Africa Railways and waterways are examined Communications in Africa, 1880-1939, Volume 3 David Sunderland, 2017-07-05 This collection presents rare documents relating to the development of various forms of communication across Africa by the British as part of their economic investment in Africa Railways and waterways are examined Trapped in History Nicholas Rankin, 2023-11-14 Trapped in History tells how the British colonised Kenya and how African nationalism arose under Jomo Kenyatta It describes the terrifying first attacks by the guerrilla freedom fighters known as Mau Mau Though defeated the Mau Mau hastened the end of British rule in Kenya Trapped in History explores the effect the uprising on the author who grew up as a child in the Kenya colony The book is both a history as well as a memoir of the end of Empire Historical Dictionary of Kenya Robert M. Maxon, Thomas P. Ofcansky, 2014-09-09 Kenya has a long and complex history that began thousands of years ago Indeed some archaeologists contend that the country was the cradle of mankind or at the very least one of the places that was home to the earliest hominids In later centuries Kenya's strategic location astride the Indian Ocean and the East African littoral attracted numerous foreign peoples some of the most significant of which have been the Americans Arabs British Chinese French Germans and Portuguese Additionally Africans from throughout the subcontinent have settled in Kenya to escape conflict or political persecution while others wanted an opportunity to begin a new life As a result of being a gateway to the world the country traditionally has been one of the most important business cultural diplomatic and political centers in Africa Although it has maintained this reputation during the post independence period Kenya like most African countries has been plagued by an increasing array of complex economic political and social problems This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Kenya provides a starting point for those interested in any of the phases of Kenya's historical evolution This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Kenya Chimpanzee Travels Dale Peterson, 2003 A lifelong fascination with primates led Dale Peterson to Africa which he crisscrossed in hope of sighting chimpanzees in the wild As with any adventure worth retelling however Peterson's detours are as notable as his destinations With the good natured fatalism of the tested traveler Peterson tells of trains and riverboats opportunists and ecotourists rain forests and shantytowns as he conveys the pitfalls of going forth on a budget as tiny as the continent is vast Along the way we also meet Jane Goodall and several other renowned primate researchers and caretakers This is travel writing with a purpose an account that inspires both admiration and concern for Africa's people places and natural diversity Ottley's Bibliography of British Railway History. Second Supplement 12957-19605 ,1998 Resource Guide to Travel in Sub-Saharan Africa: East and West Africa Louis Taussig,1994 The Uganda Journal ,1996
