Beyond Bylines Barbara M. Freeman,2012-08-01 Beyond Bylines Media Workers and Women s Rights in Canada explores the ways in which several of Canada s women journalists broadcasters and other media workers reached well beyond the glory of their personal bylines to advocate for the most controversial women s rights of their eras To do so some of them adopted conventional feminine identities while others refused to conform altogether openly and defiantly challenging the gender expectations of their day The book consists of a series of case studies of the women in question as they grappled with the concerns close to their hearts higher education for women healthy dress reforms the vote equal opportunities at work abortion lesbianism and Aboriginal women s rights Their media reflected their respective eras intellectual magazines daily and weekly newspapers radio feminist public relations alternative women s periodicals and documentary film made for television Barbara Freeman takes an interdisciplinary approach combining biography history and communication studies to demonstrate how their use of different media both enabled and limited these women in their ability to be daring advocates for gender equality She shows how a number of these women were linked through the generations by their memberships in activist women s organizations Byways and Bylines Harvey Currell,2009-08-10 Besides holding down a full time editor s job on a big city daily newspaper Harvey Currell used his spare time for 49 years at the work he loved best combing the byways and backwoods of Ontario and infrequently even England and the eastern U S in search of fascinating destinations never discovered by travelers who stick to the superhighways Every week he distilled his adventures into a Trips column from 1958 to 1971 for The Toronto Telegram and from 1971 to 2007 for The Toronto Sun On many of his early expeditions he had two eager passengers his young daughter and son They would listen carefully as Harvey interviewed foresters naturalists archaeologists farmers conservation officers potters woodcarvers trappers glass blowers gliders cabinet makers and dozens of other specialists in many fields At the conclusion of Harvey s interview the kids would take over and ask their own questions Often they would make notes to share their information at school the following week sometimes before Dad s story had appeared in the paper Newspaper readers clipped and saved the columns sometimes for years before going on the trips In Byways and Bylines Harvey recreates 32 memorable trips while sharing his own life story Railway Bylines Summer Special Martin Smith,2000-07-01 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1996
