Religion Media And The Public Sphere:

Religion, Media, and the Public Sphere Birgit Meyer, Annelies Moors, 2005-12-01 one of those rare edited volumes that advances social thought as it provides substantive religious and media ethnography that is good to think with Dale Eickelman Dartmouth College Increasingly Pentecostal Buddhist Muslim Jewish Hindu and indigenous movements all over the world make use of a great variety of modern mass media both print and electronic Through religious booklets radio broadcasts cassette tapes television talk shows soap operas and documentary film these movements address multiple publics and offer alternative forms of belonging often in competition with the postcolonial nation state How have new practices of religious mediation transformed the public sphere How has the adoption of new media impinged on religious experiences and notions of religious authority Has neo liberalism engendered a blurring of the boundaries between religion and entertainment The vivid essays in this interdisciplinary volume combine rich empirical detail with theoretical reflection offering new perspectives on a variety of media genres and religions

Religion, Media, and Marginality in Modern Africa Felicitas Becker, Joel Cabrita, Marie Rodet, 2018-02-02 In recent years anthropologists historians and others have been drawn to study the profuse and creative usages of digital media by religious movements At the same time scholars of Christian Africa have long been concerned with the history of textual culture the politics of Bible translation and the status of the vernacular in Christianity Students of Islam in Africa have similarly examined politics of knowledge the transmission of learning in written form and the influence of new media Until now however these arenas Christianity and Islam digital media and old media have been studied separately Religion Media and Marginality in Modern Africa is one of the first volumes to put new media and old media into significant conversation with one another and also offers a rare comparison between Christianity and Islam in Africa The contributors find many previously unacknowledged correspondences among different media and between the two faiths In the process they challenge the technological determinism the notion that certain types of media generate particular forms of religious expression that haunts many studies In evaluating how media usage and religious commitment intersect in the social cultural and political landscapes of modern Africa this collection will contribute to the development of new paradigms for media and religious studies Contributors Heike Behrend Andre Chappatte Maria Frahm Arp David Gordon Liz Gunner Bruce S Hall Sean Hanretta Jorg Haustein Katrien Pype and Asonzeh Ukah

Media Perceptions of Religious Changes in Australia Enqi Weng, 2019-12-05 This volume explores the contradiction between the news coverage given to issues of religion particularly since 2001 in relation to issues such as terrorism politics security and gender and the fact of its apparent decline according to Census data Based on media research in Australia and offering comparisons with the UK the author demonstrates that media discussions overlook the diversity that exists within religions particularly the country s main religion Christianity and presents religion according to specific interpretations shaped by race class and gender which in turn result in very limited understandings of religion itself Drawing on understandings of the sacred as a non negotiable value present in religious and secular form Media Perceptions of Religious Changes in Australia calls for a broader sociological perspective on religion and will appeal to scholars of sociology and media studies with interests in religion and public life
