Religion In A Changing Society:

Religion and Family in a Changing Society Penny Edgell, 2013-12-03 The 1950s religious boom was organized around the male breadwinner lifestyle in the burgeoning postwar suburbs But since the 1950s family life has been fundamentally reconfigured in the United States How do religion and family fit together today This book examines how religious congregations in America have responded to changes in family structure and how families participate in local religious life Based on a study of congregations and community residents in upstate New York sociologist Penny Edgell argues that while some religious groups may be nostalgic for the Ozzie and Harriet days others are changing knowing that fewer and fewer families fit this traditional pattern In order to keep members with nontraditional family arrangements within the congregation these innovators have sought to emphasize individual freedom and personal spirituality and actively to welcome single adults and those from nontraditional families Edgell shows that mothers and fathers seek involvement in congregations for different reasons Men tend to think of congregations as social support structures and to get involved as a means of participating in the lives of their children Women by contrast are more often motivated by the quest for religious experience and can adapt more readily to pluralist ideas about family structure This Edgell concludes may explain the attraction of men to more conservative congregations and women to nontraditional religious groups

African Cultural Personalities in a World of Change Ikechukwu Anthony Kanu, Ejikemeuwa J. O. Ndubisi, Kanayo Nwadiakor, 2018-08-16 This notwithstanding over the years the African culture in all its manifestations became the bulls eye for attack especially during the Atlantic Slave Trade Colonialism Racism During these periods Europe dealt coup de grace to the African personality to his is ness by destroying the African cultural values They disrespected African peculiarities languages enriched with traditions of centuries parables many of them the quintessence of family and national histories modes of thought influenced more or less by local circumstances local poetry which reveals the profundity of African literary wizardry A lot of these were altered against the background that the African in all his susceptibilities is an inferior race and that it is needful to give him a foreign model beacon to emulate and follow In our time of globalization bringing about a new sweep of changes on the African cultural values a more careful historically grounded interpretation of the cultural changes occurring on the continent is therefore needed and for it to be useful it should enable us to transcend the narrow and narrowing parameters that currently dominate the discourse on the processes and structures of change occurring in contemporary Africa This piece is a great accomplishment by African scholars to do a grounded hermeneutics of the structures of changes taking place in Africa The different chapters are the fruits of the 2018 International Conference of the Association for the Promotion of African Studies APAS The authors like artists combine originality with insightful imagination They have carefully treated the historical conceptual basic and substantive issues in cultural change in Africa Their coherent systematic and encyclopedic approaches have the capacity to expand the intellectual and professional horizon of its readers Development Digest ,1971 A quarterly journal of excerpts summaries and reprints of current materials on economic and social development
