Religious Experience And The End Of Metaphysics:

Religious Experience and the End of Metaphysics Jeffrey Bloechl, 2003 Does religious thinking stand in opposition to postmodernity Does the existence of God present the ultimate challenge to metaphysics Strands of continental thought especially those running from Kant Husserl and Heidegger focus on individual consciousness as the horizon for all meaning and provide modern philosophy of religion with much of its present ferment In Religious Experience and the End of Metaphysics 11 influential continental philosophers share the conviction that religious thinking cannot afford to disengage from the challenges of modern European philosophy Together they provide a rich and intriguing set of answers to questions surrounding the meaning of religious experience Topics include subjectivity selfhood and rationality language community and ethics the influence of Jewish and eastern religions on religious experience God as phenomenology and religion in the postmodern age These lucid and arresting essays bring together many of the leading voices in the contemporary continental debate on God and religion

Religious Experience and the End of Metaphysics. Indiana Series in the Philosophy of Religion Jeffrey Bloechl, 2003 Religious Experience and Contemporary Theological Epistemology Lieven Boeve, Yves De Maeseneer, Stijn Van den Bossche, 2005 In this volume we present the proceedings from the fourth international Leuven Encounters in Systematic Theology LEST IV November 5-8 2003 which focussed on a critical investigation of the place and role of religious experience in the legitimization structures of contemporary theological thinking patterns In the first part the keynote lectures including the responses are gathered among others from L Boeve F Fiorenza L Hemming G Jantzen S Painadath S Robert R Schaeffler and S Van den Bossche In the second part a selection of the contributions offered in the thematic seminars is presented

Fifty Years of Philosophy of Religion: A Select Bibliography (1955-2005) Andy Sanders, Kristof de Ridder, 2007-06-28 The bibliography lists about 10 000 titles of monographs collections and articles in the field of the philosophy of religion and philosophical theology that appeared between 1955 and 2005 The majority of them are in the English language but publications in German Dutch and French are listed as well Though it is not claimed to be exhaustive the bibliography offers a fairly representative survey of scholarly work on the main topics of interest Publications have been systematically classified according to eleven main categories Introductions Surveys and Historical Issues Part I Religious Language Part II Religious Experience Part III Religious Epistemology Part IV Theism Part V Hermeneutics Part VI Religion and Science Part VII Religion and Aesthetics Part VIII Religion and Morality Part IX Religious Pluralism Part X and Feminist Philosophy of Religion Part XI Part III has been subdivided into Religious Experience and Mystical Experience Part VII into The Concept of God arguments for The Existence of God The Problem of Evil and Atheism and Part VII into General and Historical Issues Theological Issues and implications of Modern Physics Cosmology and Biology The bibliography will particularly be useful to scholars teachers and students in the philosophy of religion philosophical theology and systematic theology as well as to those who are interested professionally or otherwise in the results of academic scholarship in those fields Karl Barth and the Study of the Religious Enlightenment Michael Jimenez, 2018-03-01 Encountering the Task of History analyzes the intellectual history of the eighteenth century provided by Karl Barth most notably in his Protestant Theology in the Nineteenth Century Barth anticipates the recent scholarship on the religious roots impact and significance of the Enlightenment foreshadowing the later and now current challenges to the secularization paradigm This volume seeks to establish a new vantage point through which to understand not only the wider shape of Barth's work itself but also his standing and contribution to public intellectual scholarship The Participatory Turn Jorge N. Ferrer, Jacob H. Sherman, 2008-10-23 Can we take seriously religious experience spirituality and mysticism without reducing them to either cultural linguistic by products or simply asserting their validity as a dogmatic fact The contributors to this volume argue that we can and they offer a new way the participatory turn which proposes that individuals and communities have an integral and irreducible role in bringing forth ontologically rich religious worlds They explore the ways this approach weaves together and gives voice to a number of robust trends in contemporary religious scholarship including the renewed study of lived spirituality the postmodern emphasis on embodied and gendered subjectivity the admission of alternate epistemic perspectives the irreducibility of religious pluralism and the pragmatist emphasis on transformation all trends that raise serious challenges to the currently prevalent linguistic paradigm The first part of the book situates the participatory turn in the context of contemporary Religious Studies the second part shows how this approach can be applied to various global traditions ancient and contemporary from Western esotericism to Jewish mysticism Christianity Hinduism Sufism and socially engaged Buddhism Displacing Christian Origins Ward Blanton, 2008-09-15 Recent critical theory is curiously preoccupied with the metaphors and ideas of early Christianity especially the religion of Paul The haunting of secular thought by the very religion it seeks to overcome may seem surprising at first but Ward Blanton argues that this recent return by theorists to the resources of early Christianity has precedent in modern and ostensibly secularizing philosophy from Kant to Heidegger Displacing Christian Origins traces the current critical engagement of Agamben Derrida and Iek among others back into nineteenth and early twentieth century philosophers of early Christianity By comparing these crucial moments in the modern history of philosophy with exemplars of modern biblical scholarship David Friedrich Strauss Adolf Deissmann and Albert Schweitzer Blanton offers a new way for critical theory to construe the relationship between the modern past and the biblical traditions to which we seem to be drawn once again An innovative contribution to the intellectual history of biblical exegesis Displacing Christian Origins will promote informed and fruitful debate between religion and philosophy Weakening Philosophy Santiago Zabala, 2006-12-12 Moving away from Jacques Derrida's deconstructionism and Paul Ricoeur's hermeneutics and building on his experiences as a politician Vattimo asks if it is still possible to speak of moral imperatives individual rights and political freedom Acknowledging the force of Nietzsche's God is dead Vattimo argues for a philosophy of pensiero debole or weak thinking that shows how moral values can exist without being guaranteed by an external authority

His secularising interpretation stresses anti metaphysical elements and puts philosophy into a relationship with postmodern culture

Transcendence and Beyond John D. Caputo, Michael J. Scanlon, 2007 A benchmark volume at the intersection of philosophy and religion

Platonic Mysticism Arthur Versluis, 2017-08-16 Restores the Platonic history and context of mysticism and shows how it helps us understand more deeply the humanities as a whole from philosophy and literature to art

In Platonic Mysticism Arthur Versluis clearly and tautly argues that mysticism must be properly understood as belonging to the great tradition of Platonism. He demonstrates how mysticism was historically understood in Western philosophical and religious traditions and emphatically rejects externalist approaches to esoteric religion. Instead he develops a new theoretical critical model for understanding mystical literature and the humanities as a whole from philosophy and literature to art. A sequel to his Restoring Paradise this is an audacious book that places Platonic mysticism in the context of contemporary cognitive and other approaches to the study of religion and presents an emerging model for the new field of contemplative science. An important work on the mystical experience delving deep into its history particularly from the Platonic perspective. An essential text for anyone interested in mysticism and its relationship to philosophy and creative expression.

Andrew Newberg author of How Enlightenment Changes Your Brain The New Science of Transformation The present work the latest from the pen of Arthur Versluis provides a trenchant learned and illuminating analysis of the origins of Western mysticism in the Platonist tradition relayed through such figures as Plotinus and Dionysius the Areopagite down through Meister Eckhart and others while suitably excoriating the attempts of certain modern philosophers and sociologists of religion to deconstruct it from a materialist perspective. I found it a rattling good read.

John Dillon author of The Heirs of Plato: A Study of the Old Academy 347-274 BC
