Religious Thought in England from the Reformation to the End of Last Century John Hunt, 1873 Religious Thought in England from the Reformation to the End of Last Century: a Contribution to the History of Theology Rev. John Hunt (M.A., Curate of St. Ives.), 1873 Continuing the Reformation B. A. Gerrish, 1993

Modern Christian religious thought B. A. Gerrish argues has constantly revised the inherited faith. In these twelve essays written or published in the 1980s, one of the most distinguished historical theologians of our time examines the changes that occurred as the Catholic tradition gave way to the Reformation and an interest in the phenomenon of believing replaced adherence to unchanging dogma. Gerrish devotes three essays to each of four topics: Martin Luther and the Reformation; religious belief and the Age of Reason; Friedrich Schleiermacher and the renewal of Protestant theology; and Schleiermacher's disciple Ernst Troeltsch, for whom the theological task was to give a rigorous account of the faith prevailing in a particular religious community at a particular time. Gerrish shows how faith itself has become a primary object of inquiry, not only in the newly emerging philosophy of religion but also in a new style of church theology which no longer assumes that faith rests on immutable dogmas. For Gerrish, the new theology of Protestant liberalism takes for its primary object of inquiry the changing forms of the religious life. This important book will interest scholars of systematic Christian theology, modern intellectual and cultural history, and the history and philosophy of religion.
