Sierz, 2019-12-12 London's West End is a global success story; staging phenomenal hit shows that have delighted millions of spectators and generated billions of pounds in revenue. In Good Nights Out, Aleks Sierz provides a thematic survey of such popular theatre shows that were enormous commercial successes over the past 75 years. He argues that these outstanding hits have a lot to say about the collective cultural, social, and political attitudes and aspirations of the country and about how our national identity and theatre's role in creating it has evolved over the decades. The book spans a range of work from almost forgotten plays such as R F Delderfield's Worm's Eye View and Hugh Hastings's Seagulls Over Sorrento to well known mega hits such as The Mousetrap and The Phantom of the Opera. Such popular work has tended to be undervalued by some critics and commentators mainly because it has not been thought to be a suitable subject for inclusion in the canon of English Literature. By contrast Sierz demonstrates that genres such as the British musical, light comedy, sex farce or murder mystery are worth appreciating not only for their intrinsic theatrical qualities but also as examples of the dream life of the British people. The book challenges the idea that mega hits are merely escapist entertainments and instead shows how they contribute to the creation of powerful myths about our national life. The analysis of such shows also points towards the possibility of creating an alternative history of postwar British theatre.

Digital Humanities and the Lost Drama of Early Modern England Matthew Steggle, 2016-04-22. This book establishes new information about the likely content of ten lost plays from the period 1580-1642. These plays' authors include Nashe, Heywood and Dekker and the plays themselves connect in direct ways to some of the most canonical dramas of English literature including Hamlet, King Lear, The Changeling and The Duchess of Malfi. The lost plays in question are Terminus (Richard the Confessor, 1593), Cutlack (1594), Bellendon (1594), Truth's Supplication to Candlelight (1600), Albere Galles (1602), Henry the Una (c. 1619), The Angel King (1624), The Duchess of Fernandina (c. 1630-42) and The Cardinal's Conspiracy (bef. 1639). From this list of bare titles it is argued can be reconstructed comedies, tragedies and histories whose leading characters included a saint, a robber, a Medici duchess, an impotent king, at least one pope and an angel. In each case, newly available digital research resources make it possible to interrogate the title and to identify the play's subject matter, analogues and likely genre. But these concrete examples raise wider theoretical problems: What is a lost play? What can and cannot be said about objects in this problematic category? Known lost plays from the early modern commercial theatre outnumber extant plays from that theatre but how, in practice, can one investigate them? This book offers an innovative theoretical and practical frame for such work, putting digital humanities into action in the emerging field of lost play studies.
