Remember This Dakota Decolonization And The Eli Taylor Narratives:

Remember This! Angela Cavender Wilson, Eli Taylor, 2005-01-01 Situating Dakota language and oral tradition within the framework of decolonization Remember This Dakota Decolonization and the Eli Taylor Narratives makes a radical departure from other works in Indigenous history because it relies solely on Indigenous oral tradition for its primary sources and privileges Dakota language in the text Waziyatawin Angela Wilson both a historian and a member of the Dakota Nation demonstrates the value of oral history in this bilingual presentation and skillful analysis of the stories told by the Dakota elder Eli Taylor 1908-99 Taylor lived on the Sioux Valley Reserve in Manitoba Canada and was adopted into Wilson's family in 1988 He agreed to tell her his story and to share his accounts of the origins history and life ways of the Dakotas In these pages he tells of Dakota history the United States Dakota Conflict of 1862 Dakota values and the mysterious powers of the world Wilson gracefully contextualizes and complements Taylor's stories with a careful analysis and distillation of the narratives Additionally she provides an overview of Dakota history and a substantial critique of the use of oral accounts by mainstream historians By placing Dakota oral tradition within the academic discipline of history this powerful book illuminates the essential connections among Dakota language history and contemporary identity Waziyatawin Angela Wilson is an assistant professor of American Indian history at Arizona State University She is a coeditor of Indigenizing the Academy: Transforming Scholarship and Empowering Communities Wahpetunwin Carolyn Schommer is a well-known Dakota language speaker and teacher who taught for more than two decades in the Dakota language program at the University of Minnesota She has co-produced an extensive array of Dakota language curriculum materials and has served as a consultant on numerous language projects

The Red Road and Other Narratives of the Dakota Sioux Samuel I. Mniyo, Robert Goodvoice, 2020-02-2021 Scholarly Writing Award in the Saskatchewan Book Awards This book presents two of the most important traditions of the Dakota people the Red Road and the Holy Dance as told by Samuel Mniyo and Robert Goodvoice two Dakota men from the Wahpeton Dakota Nation near Prince Albert Saskatchewan Canada Their accounts of these central spiritual traditions and other aspects of Dakota life and history go back seven generations and help to illuminate the worldview of the Dakota people for the younger generation of Dakotas also called the Santee Sioux The Good Red Road an important symbolic concept in the Holy Dance means the good way of living or the path of goodness The Holy Dance also called the Medicine Dance is a Dakota ceremony of earlier generations Although it is no longer practiced it too was a central part of the tradition and likely the most important ceremonial organization of the Dakotas While some people believe that the Holy Dance is sacred and that the information regarding its subjects should be allowed to die with the last believers Mniyo believed that these spiritual ceremonies played a key role in maintaining connections with the spirit world and were important aspects of shaping the identity of the Dakota people In The Red Road and Other Narratives of the Dakota Sioux Daniel Beveridge brings together Mniyo and Goodvoice's narratives and biographies as well as songs of the Holy Dance and the pictographic notebooks of James Black Jim Sapa to make this volume indispensable for scholars and members of the Dakota community Surviving Wounded Knee David W. Grua, 2016 A study of the massacre at Wounded Knee in history and memory Indigenuity Caroline Wigginton, 2022-10-06 For hundreds of years American artisanship and American authorship were entangled practices rather than distinct disciplines Books like other objects were multisensory items all North American communities and cultures including Native and settler colonial ones regularly made and used All cultures and communities narrated and documented their histories and imaginations through a variety of media All created objects for domestic sacred curative and collective purposes In this innovative work at the intersection of Indigenous studies literary studies book history and material culture studies Caroline Wigginton tells a story of the interweavings of Native craftwork and American literatures from their ancient roots to the present Focused primarily on North America especially the colonized lands and waters now claimed by the United States this book argues for the foundational but often hidden aesthetic orientation of American literary history toward Native craftwork Wigginton knits this narrative to another of Indigenous aesthetic repatriation through the making and using of books and works of material expression Ultimately she reveals that Native craftwork is by turns the warp and weft of American literature interwoven throughout its long history Encounter on the Great Plains Karen V. Hansen, 2013-10-16 In 1904 the first Scandinavian settlers moved onto the Spirit Lake Dakota Indian Reservation These land hungry immigrants struggled against severe poverty often becoming the sharecropping tenants of Dakota landowners Yet the homesteaders impoverishment did not impede their quest to acquire Indian land and by 1929 Scandinavians owned more reservation acreage than their Dakota neighbors Norwegian homesteader Helena Haugen Kantén put it plainly We stole the land from the Indians With this largely unknown story at its center Encounter on the Great Plains brings together two dominant processes in American history the unceasing migration of newcomers to North America and the protracted dispossession of indigenous peoples who inhabited the continent Drawing on fifteen years of archival research and 130 oral histories Karen V Hansen explores the epic issues of co existence between settlers and Indians and the effect of racial hierarchies both legal and cultural on marginalized peoples Hansen offers a wealth of intimate detail about daily lives and community events showing how both Dakotas and Scandinavians resisted assimilation and used their rights as new citizens to combat attacks on their cultures In this flowing narrative women emerge as resourceful agents of their own economic interests Dakota women gained autonomy in the use of their allotments while Scandinavian women staked and proved up their own claims Hansen chronicles the intertwined stories of Dakotas and immigrants women and men farmers domestic servants and day laborers Their shared struggles reveal efforts to maintain a language sustain a culture and navigate their complex ties to more than one nation The history of the American West cannot be told without these voices their long connections intermittent conflicts and profound influence over one another defy easy categorization and provide a new perspective on the processes of immigration and land taking Carrie Cavender Schommer Diane Wilson, 2025-08-01

Carrie Cavender Schommer grew up in a home where Dakota was spoken but going to school where everyone spoke English kept her from sharing her love of her Indigenous language As an adult Schommer spent decades teaching Dakota language and culture at the University of Minnesota and in her home community From her childhood to her achievements as an educator explore the inspiring life of Schommer The Prison of Democracy Sara M. Benson, 2019-04-16 At publication date a free ebook version of this title will be available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Built in the 1890s at the center of the nation Leavenworth Federal Penitentiary was designed specifically to be a replica of the US Capitol Building But why The Prison of Democracy explains the political significance of a prison built to mimic one of America s monuments to democracy Locating Leavenworth in memory history and law the prison geographically sits at the borders of Indian Territory 1825 1854 and Bleeding Kansas 1854 1864 both sites of contestation over slavery and freedom Author Sara M Benson argues that Leavenworth reshaped the design of punishment in America by gradually normalizing state inflicted violence against citizens Leavenworth s peculiar architecture illustrates the real roots of mass incarceration as an explicitly race and nation building system that has been ingrained in the very fabric of US history rather than as part of a recent post war racial history The book sheds light on the truth of the painful relationship between the carceral state and democracy in the US a relationship that thrives to this day

Sovereignty Matters Joanne Barker, 2005-12-01 Sovereignty Matters investigates the multiple perspectives that exist within indigenous communities regarding the significance of sovereignty as a category of intellectual political and cultural work Much scholarship to date has treated sovereignty in geographical and political matters solely in terms of relationships between indigenous groups and their colonial states or with a bias toward American contexts This groundbreaking anthology of essays by indigenous peoples from the Americas and the Pacific offers multiple perspectives on the significance of sovereignty

Decolonizing Museums Amy Lonetree, 2012-11-19 Museum exhibitions focusing on Native American history have long been curator controlled However a shift is occurring giving Indigenous people a larger role in determining exhibition content In Decolonizing Museums Amy Lonetree examines the complexities of these new relationships with an eye toward exploring how museums can grapple with centuries of unresolved trauma as they tell the stories of Native peoples She investigates how museums can honor an Indigenous worldview and way of knowing challenge stereotypical representations and speak the hard truths of colonization within exhibition spaces to address the persistent legacies of historical unresolved grief in Native communities Lonetree focuses on the representation of Native Americans in exhibitions at the Smithsonian s National Museum of the American Indian the Mille Lacs Indian Museum in Minnesota and the Ziibiwing Center of Anishinabe Culture and Lifeways in Michigan Drawing on her experiences as an Indigenous scholar and museum professional Lonetree analyzes exhibition texts and images records of exhibition development and interviews with staff members She addresses historical and contemporary museum practices and charts possible paths for the future curation and presentation of Native lifeways Dakota in Exile Linda M. Clemmons, 2019-05-15 Robert Hopkins was a man caught between two worlds As a member of the Dakota Nation he was unfairly imprisoned accused of taking up arms against U S soldiers when war broke out with the Dakota in 1862 However as a Christian convert who was also a preacher Hopkins s allegiance was often questioned by many of his fellow Dakota as well Without a doubt being a convert and a favorite of the missionaries had its privileges Hopkins learned to read and write in an anglicized form of Dakota and when facing legal allegations he and several high ranking missionaries wrote impassioned letters in his defense Ultimately he was among the 300 some Dakota spared from hanging by President Lincoln imprisoned instead at Camp Kearney in Davenport Iowa for several years His wife Sarah and their children meanwhile were forced onto the barren Crow Creek reservation in Dakota Territory with the rest of the Dakota women children and elderly In both places the Dakota were treated as novelties displayed for curious residents like zoo animals Historian Linda Clemmons examines the surviving letters from Robert and Sarah other Dakota language sources and letters from missionaries newspaper accounts and federal documents She blends both the personal and the historical to complicate our understanding of the development of the Midwest while also serving as a testament to the resilience of the Dakota and other indigenous peoples who have lived in this region from time immemorial
