The memoir is the most popular and expressive literary form of our time Writers embrace the memoir and readers devour it propelling many memoirs by relative unknowns to the top of the best seller list Writing programs challenge authors to disclose themselves in personal narrative Memoir and personal narrative urge writers to face the intimacies of the self and ask what is true In The Memoir and the Memoirist critic and memoirist Thomas Larson explores the craft and purpose of writing this new form Larson guides the reader from the autobiography and the personal essay to the memoir a genre focused on a particularly emotional relationship in the author's past an intimate story concerned more with who is remembering and why than with what is remembered The Memoir and the Memoirist touches on the nuances of memory of finding and telling the truth and of disclosing one's deepest self It explores the craft and purpose of personal narrative by looking in detail at more than a dozen examples by writers such as Mary Karr Frank McCourt Dave Eggers Elizabeth Wurtzel

Mark Doty Nuala O Faolain Rick Bragg and Joseph Lelyveld to show what they reveal about themselves Larson also opens up his own writing and that of his students to demonstrate the hidden mechanics of the writing process For both the interested reader of memoir and the writer wrestling with the craft The Memoir and the Memoirist provides guidance and insight into the many facets of this provocative and popular art form The Oxford Handbook of Children's Literature Julia Mickenberg, Lynne Vallone, 2012-11-29 Remarkably well researched the essays consider a wide range of texts from the U S Britain and Canada and take a variety of theoretical approaches including formalism and Marxism and those related to psychology postcolonialism reception feminism queer studies and performance studies This collection pushes boundaries of genre notions of childhood Choice Back cover of book Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. The Wounded Surgeon Adam Kirsch,2013-10-07 One of the most promising young poet critics in America Los Angeles Times examines a revolutionary generation of poets Robert Lowell Elizabeth Bishop Sylvia Plath John Berryman Randall Jarrell and Delmore Schwartz formed one of the great constellations of talent in American literature In the decades after World War II they changed American poetry forever by putting themselves at risk in their poems in a new and provocative way Their daring work helped to inspire the popular style of poetry now known as confessional But partly as a result of their openness they have become better known for their tumultuous lives afflicted by mental illness alcoholism and suicide than for their work This book reclaims their achievement by offering critical biographies of the poetry tracing the development of each poet's work exploring their major themes and techniques and examining how they transformed life into art. An ideal introduction for readers coming to these major American poets for the first time, it will also help veteran readers to appreciate their work in a new light.
