Meet Me at the Fair: A World's Fair Reader Celia Pearce, Bobby Schweizer, Laura Hollengreen, Rebecca Rouse, 2014

Together with the Olympics world's fairs are one of the few regular international events of sufficient scale to showcase a spectrum of sights wonders learning opportunities technological advances and new or renewed urban districts and to present them all to a mass audience Meet Me at the Fair A World's Fair Reader breaks new ground in scholarship on world's fairs by incorporating a number of short new texts that investigate world's fairs in their multiple aspects political urban architectural anthropological sociological technological commercial popular and representational Contributors come from eight different countries and represent affiliations in academia museums and libraries professional and architectural firms non profit organizations and government regulatory agencies In taking the measure of both the material artifacts and the larger cultural production of world's fairs the volume presents its own phantasmagoria of disciplinary perspectives historical periods geographical locales media and messages mirroring the microcosmic form of the world's fair itself The Urban

Lifeworld Peter Madsen, Richard Plunz, 2005-06-29 Urban conditions are crucial to our experience of modernity and as reflected by art literature and popular culture have influenced contemporary ideas of what urban life is about The Urban Lifeworld contributes to our understanding of the cultural role of cities by offering new insight into the analysis of urban experience Two exceptional cities New York and Copenhagen are the focus of this exploration of cultural representations of urban life which investigates the contrasts between perceptions and formation of the urban lifeworld Integrating sociological aesthetic and anthropological approaches to urban questions this collection of essays presents a new vision of the cityscape which will enrich both academic debate and public life The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction Mark

Bould, Andrew M. Butler, Sherryl Vint, 2024-06-13 The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction provides an overview of the study of science fiction across multiple academic fields It offers a new conceptualisation of the field today marking the significant changes that have taken place in sf studies over the past 15 years Building on the pioneering research in the first edition the collection reorganises historical coverage of the genre to emphasise new geographical areas of cultural production and the growing importance of media beyond print It also updates and expands the range of frameworks that are relevant to the study of science fiction The periodisation has been reframed to include new chapters focusing on science fiction produced outside the Anglophone context including South Asian Latin American Chinese and African diasporic science fiction The contributors use both well established critical and theoretical approaches and embrace a range of new ones including biopolitics climate crisis critical ethnic studies disability studies energy humanities game studies medical humanities new materialisms and sonic studies This book is an invaluable resource for students and established scholars seeking to understand the vast range of engagements with science fiction in scholarship today Chapter 39 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution
