Remembering Light And Stone:

Remembering Light and Stone Deirdre Madden, 2012-10-18 Remembering Light and Stone is a moving study of a young woman coming to terms with herself in a changing world Not only is Madden's book a joy to read it is also a portrait of personal fulfilment and a telling snapshot of our age The Times One of the most original and disturbing writers since Jean Rhys Independent on Sunday No Country for Old Men Paddy Lyons, 2008 The concepts of Ireland and Irishness are in constant flux in the wake of an ever increasing reappraisal of the notion of cultural and national specificity in a world assailed from all angles by the forces of globalisation and uniformity Reimagining Ireland interrogates Ireland's past and present and suggests possibilities for the future by looking at Ireland's literature culture and history and subjecting them to the most up to date critical appraisals associated with sociology literary theory historiography political science and theology

The Irish Expatriate Novel in Late Capitalist Globalization Joe Cleary, 2021-11-11 This study of contemporary Irish expatriate fiction offers a boldly original world facing rather than nation focused overview of the contemporary Irish novel Chapters examine how Irish narrative deals with the United States in a time of declining global hegemony a rising China and Asia a thwarted and turbulent Global South and a European Union that has decisively reshaped Ireland in the last half century The author argues that in a late capitalist world defined by volatile economic and cultural globalizations the Irish novel is struggling to imagine new ways to narrate the country's relationship to the world capitalist system and to find new place for Irish writing in the world literary system Looking at a rapidly changing Ireland in a rapidly changing international order Joe Cleary offers new readings of novels by Colm Tóibín Anne Enright Joseph O'Neill Deirdre Madden Mary Costello Naoise Dolan Aidan Higgins Colum McCann Ronan Sheehan and Ronan Bennett Pain: Management, Expression, Interpretation, 2020-05-06

Memory and the Management of Change Emily Keightley, Michael Pickering, 2017-11-09 This book shows how the mnemonic imagination creatively uses the resources of photography and music in the registering and management of change Looking in particular at major transitions and turning points it covers key issues of identity for the remembering subject and key scales of remembering in vernacular milieus The book explores the connections of memory and remembering with transformations in intimate relationships migration and spatial mobilities loss and bereavement involving loved ones or those with whom close affinities are felt resulting in a volume that helps fill the gap in memory studies caused by lack of sustained ethnographic work Drawing on extensive fieldwork on the processes and practices of remembering in everyday life it demonstrates how the mnemonic imagination is central to the management of change and transition and how its cross temporal interanimations of past present and future are fostered and facilitated by the visual and sonic resources of photography and recorded music Changing Ireland Christine St. Peter, 2000-03-17 During the past twenty five years Ireland has seen an explosion of women's fiction hundreds of published works that reimagine the inherited literary traditions and the social contexts of women's lives Changing Ireland examines women's use of historical fiction exile
