

The background of the entire image is a close-up, slightly blurred photograph of an open book. The pages are a warm, yellowish-brown color, suggesting age. The book is open, with the left and right pages visible. A dark, semi-transparent rectangular overlay is positioned in the upper half of the image, containing the title and author's name in white text. The title is in a large, serif font, and the author's name is in a smaller, similar font below it, separated by a thin horizontal line.

This book gives readers an additional look into the saint's remarkable life, their deep wisdom, and the continuing influence they had on those who were fortunate enough to be in their company. Reminiscences of Present-day Saints Francis G. Peabody, 1972 Social Ethics in the Making Gary Dorrien, 2011-04-06. In the early 1880s, proponents of what came to be called the social gospel founded what is now known as social ethics. This ambitious and magisterial book describes the tradition of social ethics, one that began with the distinctly modern idea that Christianity has a social ethical mission to transform the structures of society in the direction of social justice. Charts the story of social ethics, the idea that Christianity has a social ethical mission to transform society from its roots in the nineteenth century through to the present day. Discusses and analyzes how different traditions of social ethics evolved in the realms of the academy, church, and general public. Looks at the wide variety of individuals who have been prominent exponents of social ethics, from academics and self-styled public intellectuals through to pastors and activists. Set to become the definitive reference guide to the history and development of social ethics. Recipient of a CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title for 2009 award. Reminiscences Charles Bulter, 1824 The New England Quarterly, 1928. Includes section Bibliography. Articles on the history of New England in periodical literature. Essay and General Literature Index Minnie Earl Sears, Marian Shaw, Dorothy Herbert West, 1934. Includes List of books indexed, published also separately. Harvard Alumni Bulletin, 1927.
