Chipp, Peter Selz, 1968      Sense and the Senses in Early Modern Art and Cultural Practice SivTove Kulbrandstad Walker, 2017-07-05

Employing a wide range of approaches from various disciplines contributors to this volume explore the diverse ways in which European art and cultural practice from the fourteenth through the seventeenth centuries confronted interpreted represented and evoked the realm of the sensual Sense and the Senses in Early Modern Art and Cultural Practice investigates how the faculties of sight hearing touch taste and smell were made to perform in a range of guises in early modern cultural practice as agents of indulgence and pleasure as bearers of information on material reality as mediators between the mind and the outer world and even as intercessors between humans and the divine The volume examines not only aspects of the arts of painting and sculpture but also extends into other spheres philosophy music and poetry gardens food relics and rituals Collectively the essays gathered here form a survey of key debates and practices attached to the theme of the senses in Renaissance and Baroque art and cultural practice      Space, Image, and Reform in Early Modern Art Arthur J. DiFuria, Ian Verstegen, 2021-11-08

The essays in Space Image and Reform in Early Modern Art build on Marcia Hall's seminal contributions in several categories crucial for Renaissance studies especially the spatiality of the church interior the altarpiece's facture and affectivity the notion of artistic style and the controversy over images in the era of Counter Reform Accruing the advantage of critical engagement with a single paradigm this volume better assesses its applicability and range The book works cumulatively to provide blocks of theoretical and empirical research on issues spanning the function and role of images in their contexts over two centuries Relating Hall's investigations of Renaissance art to new fields Space Image and Reform expands the ideas at the center of her work further back in time further afield and deeper into familiar topics thus achieving a cohesion not usually seen in edited volumes honoring a single scholar      RENAISSANCE & MODERN ART W. alive and relevant     The Renaissance Restored Matthew Hayes, 2021-07-27 This handsomely illustrated volume traces the intersections of art history and paintings restoration in nineteenth century Europe Repairing works of art and writing about them the practices that became art conservation and art history share a common ancestry By the nineteenth century the two fields had become inseparably linked While the art historical scholarship of this period has been widely studied its restoration practices have received less scrutiny until now This book charts the intersections between art history and conservation in the treatment of Italian Renaissance paintings in nineteenth century Europe Initial chapters discuss the restoration of works by Giotto and Titian framed by the contemporary scholarship of art historians such as Jacob Burckhardt G B Cavalcaselle and Joseph Crowe that was redefining the earlier age Subsequent chapters recount how paintings conservation was integrated into museum settings The narrative uses period texts unpublished archival materials and historical photographs in probing how paintings looked at a time when scholars were writing the foundational texts of art history and how contemporary restorers were negotiating the appearances of these works The book proposes a model for a new conservation history object focused yet enriched by consideration of a wider cultural horizon     What was Contemporary Art? Richard Meyer, 2013 Contemporary art in the early twenty first century is often discussed as though it were a radically new phenomenon unmoored from history Yet all works of art were once contemporary to the artist and culture that produced them In What Was Contemporary Art Richard Meyer reclaims the contemporary from historical amnesia exploring episodes in the study exhibition and reception of early twentieth century art and visual culture
