Histories of Exhibition Design in the Museum
Kate Guy, Hajra Williams, Claire Wintle, 2023-11-30 Histories of Exhibition Design in the Museum Makers Process and Practice offers a new model for understanding exhibition design in museums as a human and material process It presents diverse case studies from around the world from the nineteenth century to the recent past It moves beyond the power of the finished exhibition over both objects and visitors to highlight historic exhibition making as an ongoing task of adaptation experimentation and interaction that involves intellectual creative and technical choices Attentive to hierarchies of ethnicity race class gender sexuality and ableism that have informed exhibition design and its histories the volume highlights the labour involved in making museum exhibitions It presents design as filled with personal and professional demands on the body senses and emotions Contributions from historians anthropologists and exhibition makers focus on histories of identity collaboration and hierarchy behind the scenes of the museum They argue for an emphasis on the everyday objects of museum design and the importance of a diverse range of actors within and beyond the museum from carpenters and label writers to volunteers and local communities Histories of Exhibition Design in the Museum offers scholars students and professionals working across the museum and design sectors insight into how past methods still influence museums today Through a postcolonial and decolonial lens it reveals the lineage of current processes and supports a more informed contemporary practice

Sculpture Collections in Europe and the United States 1500-1930, 2021-04-26 Exploring the variety of forms taken by collections of sculpture this volume presents new research by twelve internationally recognized scholars The essays delve into the motivations of different collectors the modes of display and the aesthetics of viewing sculpture bringing to light much new archival material The book underscores the ambiguous nature of sculpture collections variously understood as decorative components of interiors or gardens as objects of desire in cabinets of curiosity or as autonomous works of art in private and public collections Emphasizing the collections and the ways in which these were viewed and described this book addresses a significant but neglected aspect of art collecting and contributes to the literature on this branch of art and cultural history This book evolved from a symposium Sculpture Collecting and Display 1600 2000 organized by the Center for the History of Collecting that was held at The Frick Collection on May 19 and 20 2017 Both the book and the symposium were made possible through the generous support of the Robert H Smith Family Foundation The book is published in association with The Frick Collection

The Gentle Art of Faking Riccardo Nobili, 2021-01-01 In analysing the Faker one must dissociate him from the common forger his semi artistic vocation places him quite apart from the ordinary counterfeiter he must be studied amid his proper surroundings and with the correct local colouring so to speak and his critic may perchance find some slight modicum of excuse for him Beside him stand the Imitator from whom the faker often originates the tempter who turns the clever imitator into a faker and the middleman who lures on the unwary collector with plausible tales It is not the object of this volume to study the Faker by himself but to trace his career through the ages in his appropriate surroundings and compare the methods adopted by him at various periods of history so far as they may be obtained Preface
