Sarai Reader 02 The Cities Of Everyday Life:

Sarai Reader 02: Cities of Everyday Life Erling Eide, Various, 2002-02 This Reader Collates Research Writing And Looking That Is Alert To The City As A Focus Of Imaginary Engagements A Body Of Distinct Practices A Compendium Of Different Ways Of Knowing And As A Field Of Power Strategies Of Survival And Resistance Participolis Karen Coelho, Lalitha Kamath, M. Vijayabaskar, 2020-11-29 While participatory development has gained significance in urban planning and policy it has been explored largely from the perspective of its prescriptive implementation This book breaks new ground in critically examining the intended and unintended effects of the deployment of citizen participation and public consultation in neoliberal urban governance by the Indian state The book reveals how emerging formats of participation as mandatory components of infrastructure projects public private partnership proposals and national urban governance policy frameworks have embedded market oriented reforms promoted financialisation of cities refashioned urban citizenship privileged certain classes in urban governance at the expense of already marginalised ones and thereby deepened the fragmentation of urban polities It also shows how such deployments are rooted in the larger political economy of neoliberal reforms and ascendance of global finance and how resultant exclusions and fractures in the urban society provoke insurgent mobilisations and subversions Offering a dialogue between scholars policy makers and activists and drawing upon several case studies of urban development projects across sectors and cities this volume will be useful for planners policy makers academics development professionals social workers and activists as well as those in urban studies urban policy planning political science sociology and development studies Urban History in India Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2022-11-22 In this book we will study about the historical evolution of Indian cities colonial legacies and post independence urbanization The City in Urban Poverty C. Lemanski, C. Marx, 2015-05-12 The contributors respond to the absence of critical debate surrounding the ways in which spaces of the city do not merely contain but also constitute urban poverty The volume explores how the spaces of the city actively produce and reproduce urban poverty Art and Emergency Emilia Terracciano, 2017-10-30 During states of emergency normal rules and rights are suspended and force can often prevail In these precarious intervals when the human potential for violence can be released and rehearsed images may also emerge This book asks what happens to art during a state of emergency Investigating the uneasy relationship between aesthetics and political history Emilia Terracciano traces a genealogy of modernism in colonial and postcolonial India she explores catastrophic turning points in the history of twentieth century India via the art works which emerged from them Art and Emergency reveals how the suspended diagonal fugitive lines of Nasreen Mohamedi s abstract compositions echo Partition s traumatic legacy how the theatrical choreographies of Sunil Janah s photographs document desperate famine and how Gaganendranath Tagore s lithographs respond to the wake of massacre Making an innovative important intervention into current debates on visual culture in South Asia this book also furthers our understanding of the history of modernism The

Illegal City Ayona Datta, 2016-03-03 The Illegal City explores the relationship between space law and gendered subjectivity through a close look at an illegal squatter settlement in Delhi Since 2000 a series of judicial rulings in India have criminalised squatters as illegal citizens encroachers and pickpockets of urban land and have led to a spate of slum demolitions across the country This book argues that in this context it has become vital to distinguish between illegality and informality since it is those illegal slums which are at the receiving end of a force of law where law is violently encountered within everyday spaces This book uses a gendered intersectional lens to explore how a violence of law shapes how public subjectivities of gender class religion and caste are encountered and negotiated within the private spaces of home family and neighbourhood This book suggests that resettlement is not a condition that squatters desire rather something that is seen as the only way out of the illegal city The wait for resettlement is a temporal space of anxiety and uncertainty where particular kinds of politics around law space and gender takes shape which transform squatters relations with the state urban development civil society and with each other Through their everyday struggles around water sanitation social and political organisation and the transformation of their homes and families this book shows that the desire for the legal city is also the irony and utopia of home which will remain an incomplete gendered project both for the state and for squatters Pirate Modernity Ravi Sundaram, 2009-07-30 Focusing on the culture of piracy in the Indian capital this book looks at what has happened to the city in the wake of the dissemination of the new media and the ways in which it has and will affect urban cultures in an age of globalization Colossus Sanjoy Chakravorty, Neelanjan Sircar, 2022-02-03 Colossus unpacks the intricacies and inequalities of economic social and political life in India's capital Delhi Neighbourhoods in Urban India Sadan Jha, Dev Nath Pathak, Amiya Kumar Das, 2021-04-30 a brilliant exploration of urbanism between the concept city and the lived city The volume focuses on urban life lived between home and the world institutions and experiences representations and affects Its fascinating range of empirically rich and analytically sophisticated excavations of neighbourhoods make the volume a must have in the bookshelf on South Asian urban studies Gyan Prakash Princeton University A must read for those who wish to study the micro aspects of contemporary urbanity Sujata Patel Savitribai Phule Pune University This book is a powerful addition to the study of Indian urbanism Ravi Sundaram Centre for the Study of Developing Societies CSDS In the last couple of decades the global South in general and India in particular have witnessed a massive growth of cities In India more than one third of its population lives in cities However urban development growth and expansion are not merely about infrastructures and enlargement of cityscapes This edited volume focuses on neighbourhoods their particularities and their role in shaping our understanding of the urban in India It locates Indian experiences in the larger context of the global South and seeks to decentre the dominant Euro American discourse of urban social life Neighbourhoods in Urban India In Between Home and the City offers an understanding of neighbourhoods as changing socio spatial units in their specific regional settings by underlining the way value regimes religiosity and subjectivities give neighbourhoods their social meanings and stereotypes It unpacks discourses and knowledge practices such as planning architecture and urban discourses of governance It further discloses the linkages and disjunctures between the social practices of neighbourhoods and the language logic and experiences of dwelling housing urban planning and governance and focuses on the particularities and heterogeneities of neighbourhoods and neighbourliness Contemporary Diasporic South Asian Women's Fiction Ruvani Ranasinha, 2016-05-28 This book is the first comparative analysis of a new generation of diasporic Anglophone South Asian women novelists including Kiran Desai Tahmima Anam Monica Ali Kamila Shamsie and Jhumpa Lahiri from a feminist perspective It charts the significant changes these writers have produced in postcolonial and contemporary women's fiction since the late 1990s Paying careful attention to the authors' distinct subcontinental backgrounds of Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka as well as India this study destabilises the central place given to fiction focused on India It broadens the customary focus on diasporic writers metropolitan contexts illuminates how these transnational female authored literary texts challenge national assumptions and considers the ways in which this new configuration of transnational feminist writers produces a postcolonial feminist discourse which differs from Anglo American feminism
