Later Letters of Marcus Dods, D.D. Marcus Dods, 1911 West Central Georgia in Vintage Postcards Gay L. Doster, 1998-10-26 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in Americas history This fascinating new history of West Central Georgia showcases more than two hundred of the best vintage postcards available

Augusta in Vintage Postcards Joseph M. Lee, III, 1997-11-01 In the early 1900s America was swept up in the postcard craze All over the country people seized on these charming snapshots of life as a means of keeping in touch with friends and family as well as seeing strange and exciting parts of the world Our Mothers' War Emily Yellin, 2010-05-11 Our Mothers War is a stunning and unprecedented portrait of women during World War II a war that forever transformed the way women participate in American society Never before has the vast range of women s experiences during this pivotal era been brought together in one book Now Our Mothers War re creates what American women from all walks of life were doing and thinking on the home front and abroad These heartwarming and sometimes heartbreaking accounts of the women we have known as mothers aunts and grandmothers reveal facets of their lives that have usually remained unmentioned and unappreciated Our Mothers War gives center stage to one of WWII s most essential fighting forces the women of America whose extraordinary bravery strength and humanity shine through on every page Charles Rennie Mackintosh ,2018-01-15 Architect designer and watercolor artist Charles Rennie Mackintosh is celebrated internationally for the Glasgow School of Arthis masterpiece The Hill House villa in Helensburgh Scotland and the remarkable tearoom interiors he designed for Miss Catherine Cranston in Glasgows city center These projects represent some of the finest examples of the room as a work of art in which the architect designed not only the structure but also the decorative scheme furniture and furnishings unifying them all into beautiful and harmonious ensembles Caledonia Dreaming John Kv Eunson,2012-03-01 So what have the Scots ever done for the world then Well most people will know about John Logie Baird inventor of television Alexander Graham Bell the telephone and Alexander Fleming penicillin But what about Alexander Cummings from Edinburgh It would be hard to imagine getting through the day without using his invention the flushing toilet Or how about William Cullen from Glasgow There would be a lot of sour milk and warm beer without the first man to demonstrate artificial refrigeration And then there s Alexander Bain from Caithness Can anyone really imagine a world without his invention the fax machine The list goes on and on Janet Keillor from Dundee marmalade James Clerk Maxwell from Edinburgh radio waves John Reith from Stonehaven the BBC James Black from Uddingston beta blockers James Bowman Lindsay from Angus light bulbs James Goodfellow from Paisley the ATM Dugald Clerk from Glasgow the two stroke engine Alexander McRae from the Kyle of Lochalsh speedos James Blyth from Kincardineshire the first electricity producing wind turbine Caledonia Dreaming tells the often frankly unbelievable stories behind these discoveries and looks at how they along with the writers philosophers philanthropists and bankers of Scotland have left their unique indelible mark on the modern world T.P.'s Weekly Thomas Power

O'Connor,Holbrook Jackson,1902 Shackleton's Heroes Wilson McOrist,2016-11-15 The Unbelievable Story of Six Men Who Trekked Across the Great Ice Barrier in Support of Ernest Shackleton s Antarctic Expedition One hundred years ago Sir Ernest Shackleton embarked on the legendary 1914 1917 Imperial Trans Antarctic Expedition defying the odds and accomplishing one of history s most remarkable feats of endurance while narrowly escaping death even though his crew failed in their mission to cross Antarctica His story inflated by time and celebrity has come to personify the Heroic Age of Antarctic Exploration Less well known however is the incredible but often forgotten tale of the Mount Hope Party also known as the Ross Sea party six men who worked in the shadow of Shackleton s greater cause Sent to the opposite side of the Polar continent these men dropped life saving food and fuel depots across the Great Ice Barrier ensuring that Shackleton had the supplies necessary to complete his mission Unaware of Shackleton s own failed task the party persevered in their mission facing insurmountable obstacles of life on the ice exhaustion starvation and crippling frostbite risking their lives for the safety of his team stitching together the previously unpublished diaries of these unsung heroes McOrist documents their pain and suffering as well as the humor and camaraderie necessary for their survival An incomparable record of sheer heroism and tragedy Shackleton's Heroes tells a story that history ought to remember one of the indomitable human spirit in the most extreme conditions James Merrill Langdon Hammer, 2015 A biography of the acclaimed poet James Merrill New Europe Donald McNeill, 2014-05-12 New Europe Imagined Spaces traces the radical transformation of European places and spaces over the last two decades Instead of the familiar schoolbook map of a Europe of nation states the book unpacks the differing imaginations of European identity in recent years Taking as its central problem the fluid nature of cultural and political identity it moves firmly away from and calls into question the perspective of the nation state as the primary source of imagined identity for Europeans The book contributes to key debates such as the emerging Europe of the Regions and the return of the city state examines the rebranding of the nation state and explores the impact of Europeanisation on existing place identity Emphasising mobility and movement the chapters explore borderlands and travel and also include a detailed discussion of the everyday life of Europeans Throughout iconic images of contemporary Europe are invoked Eurodisney the Reichstag Barcelona's Ramblas and the Bilbao Guggenheim and the way in which mundane artefacts and practices such as football walking cars food passports and the Euro help construct identity is considered New Europe Imagined Spaces adopts a multidisciplinary approach to studying Europe providing students with an exploration of contemporary European space and place identity Exposing the Wilderness Robert Bogdan, 1999-10-01 Robert Bogdan combines a richly descriptive text with striking illustrations to create vivid biographical sketches of these pioneer photographers who worked their individual styles to illuminate six different regions of the Adirondack Mountains The book also provides insight into the popular culture of the times mainly through postcards but it also takes an in depth look at the families and work lives of these artisans as they plied their trade in the popular venue of commercial postcards Aside from the Adirondack locals and a few postcard connoisseurs the gifted folk artists and craftspeople profiled here were virtually unknown until now Bogdan has collected nearly 250 illustrations including postcards and photographs depicting Adirondack life of the time Many of these images have never before been published Southeast Georgia in Vintage Postcards Gary L. Doster, 1998-11-02 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America's history This fascinating new history of Southeast Georgia showcases more than two hundred of the best vintage postcards available Domestic United States Military Facilities of the First World War 1917-1919 Robert Swanson,2000-02 This book attempts to list every place in the United States and Territories where soldiers sailors or marines might have been stationed during the First World War The reason for such a list is to provide source locations and checklists for postal history letters and cards from these military men The book lists all fixed land based United States military camps and facilities that operated during the War period There has long been a need for such a listing as it was not known where military mail could have originated within the US Annual Report National Museum of Antiquities of Scotland,1983 Best Regards Freddie Victor Breedon,2014-07-01 The first twenty years of the twentieth century 1900 1920 In no other twenty years has the world changed so radically commencing in perhaps the very best of times and proceeding through to certainly and suddenly the very worst The story of those years can be told in different ways Freddie Breedon and his modestly middle class British family and friends who would live travel and work and also fight and support during those two decades have allow us with their regular correspondence a unique way During those twenty years some 200 postcards would pass between them to be collected by Freddie Two hundred short episodes two hundred snapshots or sketches with a bit of description from here and there and all over and from different authors when blended together can give us a single picture of this time like no other To enhance our picture and add colour and depth a second form of authentic reportage is used in our story Beverley Moysey was a Canadian soldier who fought in the trenches of the western front in the Great War He kept a diary of vivid and explicit entries of his months there It is presented here in its entirety It will show a very different picture to that seen by Freddie and family Mexican Postcards Carlos Monsivais,1997-05-17 This chronicle of contemporary life south of the Rio Grande ranges over pop music Latino hip hop film stars such as Cantinflas and Dolores del Rio the writer Juan Rulfo life on the border with the United States boleros and melodrama Even Strange Ghosts Can Be Shared Jack Spicer,2025-09-02 The more than 300 letters collected in Even Strange Ghosts Can Be Shared are a crucial component of Jack Spicer s unique oeuvre and they radiate with the brilliance ferocity and vulnerability that characterizes his poetry Spicer writes tenderly to lovers and friends in self reflective series that recall the poetic sequences in My Vocabulary Did This To Me The Collected Poetry of Jack Spicer Letters to elders like Charles Olson and Ezra Pound and to poetic collaborators like Robin Blaser and Robert Duncan provide insight into the inner workings of an avant garde and are indispensable documents for students of 20th century American poetry Writing to younger poets Spicer offers inspiring words of mentorship sometimes with a sting about how to live in total devotion to art Spicer s letters paint a unique portrait of the political and personal challenges faced by a gay man at mid century including documents from his involvement in the early gay rights movement The fully annotated letters in Even Strange Ghosts Can Be Shared contribute vital details to Spicer s biography Poet Be Like God Jack Spicer and the San Francisco Renaissance by Lewis Ellingham and Kevin Killian They stand alongside the recently published Be Brave to Things The Uncollected Poetry and Plays of Jack Spicer edited by Daniel Katz as key components of Spicer s inventive and influential writings Readers of
