Bookbuyers' Reference Book, 1993 Handbook of International Research in Mathematics Education Lyn D. English, David Kirshner, 2010-04-02 The second edition continues the mission of bringing together important new mathematics education research that makes a difference in both theory and practice. It updates and extends the Handbook's original key themes and issues for international research in mathematics education for the 21st century namely priorities in international mathematics education research, lifelong democratic access to powerful mathematical ideas, advances in research methodologies, influences of advanced technologies. Each of these themes is examined in terms of learners, teachers and learning contexts with theory development being an important component of all these aspects. This edition also examines other catalysts that have gained increased import in recent years including a stronger focus on the teacher and teacher practice, a renewed interest in theory development, an increased focus on the mathematics needed in work place settings and a proliferation of research designs and methodologies that have provided unprecedented opportunities for investigating and ultimately improving mathematical teaching and learning. This edition includes ten totally new chapters, all other chapters are thoroughly revised and updated Operations Research Models for Problems Concerning Natural Resources, 2000

Handbook of Research on Transforming Mathematics Teacher Education in the Digital Age Niess, Margaret, Driskell, Shannon, Hollebrands, Karen, 2016-04-22 The digital age provides ample opportunities for enhanced learning experiences for students however it can also present challenges for educators who must adapt to and implement new technologies in the classroom. The Handbook of Research on Transforming Mathematics Teacher Education in the Digital Age is a critical reference source featuring the latest research on the development of educators' knowledge for the integration of technologies to improve classroom instruction.
