Ward Churchill, 1998 Chosen an Outstanding Book on the Subject of Human Rights in the United States by the Gustavus Myers Center for the Study of Human Rights In this volume of incisive essays Ward Churchill looks at representations of American Indians in literature and film delineating a history of cultural propaganda that has served to support the continued colonization of Native America During each phase of the genocide of American Indians the media has played a critical role in creating easily digestible stereotypes of Indians for popular consumption Literature about Indians was first written and published in order to provoke and sanctify warfare against them Later the focus changed to enlisting public support for civilizing the savages stripping them of their culture and assimilating them into the dominant society Now in the final stages of cultural genocide it is the appropriation and stereotyping of Native culture that establishes control over knowledge and truth The primary means by which this is accomplished is through the powerful publishing and film industries Whether they are the tragically doomed noble savages walking into the sunset of Dances With Wolves or Carlos Castaneda's Don Juan the exotic mythical Indians constitute no threat to the established order Literature and art crafted by the dominant culture are an insidious political force disinforming people who might otherwise develop a clearer understanding of indigenous struggles for justice and freedom This book is offered to counter that deception and to move people to take action on issues confronting American Indians today Na Gira Do Exu - Invoking the Spirits of Brazilian Quimbanda Mario Dos

In the Cold of the Malecon and Other Stories Antonio José Ponte, 2000-10 Departing from both the utopian political and the romantic baroque styles of past Cuban literature Ponte deftly sketches a picture of a contemporary Cuba that is very different from the stereotype of Caribbean life full of music and dance and colorful celebration An old man and a six year old prodigy have a rendezvous to play chess at a forlorn railroad station Randomly riding trains a woman keeps company with a strange assembly of men An unemployed historian falls in love with an enigmatic astrologer and the two live out their tragedy in the streets of Havana as homeless vagrants A father and son take an aimless stroll after lunch to see the whores along the Malecon Havana's seaside promenade A young man one of the last Cuban students to go to the Soviet Union on a foreign study program returns to Havana where he explores his identity looking at childhood photos with his grandfather spending time with old friends and obsessively seeking news of a woman he had known and loved in Russia In a style both lucid and translucent Ponte shapes intricate stories of self discovery and metaphysical revelation in spare and allusive prose

About the Authors Antonio José Ponte was born in 1964 in Matanzas Cuba and studied at the University of Havana He worked for some years as an engineer and then as a screenwriter In addition to writing short stories and fiction Ponte has published prize winning collections of poetry and essays His work has been published in France Germany and Spain This is his first book to be published in the United States Cola Franzen is the translator of over twenty books including Poems of Arab Andalusia Dreams of the Abandoned Seducer by Alicia Borinsky and Horses in the Air by Jorge Guillen recipient of the Academy of American Poets Harold Morton Landon Translation Award 2000 Review In his first book to be published in the U S Ponte gives readers a short collection of six elliptical stories from inside the Cuban revolutionary experience closer in spirit to the fiction of Eastern European dissidents than to that of Caribbean fabulists unlike exiled writers who see the island as either a mythical homeland or a political cause
