Unforgettable Texans Bartee Haile, 2017-07-24 History books burst at the seams with stories about Houston Travis Crockett and other icons of Texas history Yet many of the Lone Star State s fascinating figures well known in life but forgotten in death remain obscure by omission This scintillating company includes a World War I spy who became a movie star the first gringo matador a West Texas tent showman and the husband and wife trick shot act that amazed audiences for forty years Some characters cut across the common narrative like the admiral whose advice might have prevented the attack on Pearl Harbor the one and only Republican congressman in the first half of the twentieth century the Klansman Texans elected to the U S Senate and the businessman who wrote the longest English language novel in complete secrecy Popular columnist and author Bartee Haile brings to life some of the most intriguing Texans who ever slipped through the cracks of history The First Waco Horror Patricia Bernstein, 2006 Annotation In 1916 seventeen year old Jesse Washington a retarded black boy was publicly tortured lynched and burned on the town square of Waco Texas Drawing on extensive research in the national files of the NAACP local newspapers and archives and interviews with the descendants of participants in the events of that day Patricia Bernstein has reconstructed the details of not only the crime but also how it

Croucher, Lindsay Weiss, 2011-08-10 The Archaeology of Capitalism in Colonial Contexts Postcolonial Historical Archaeologies explores the complex interplay of colonial and capital formations throughout the modern world The authors present a critical approach to this topic trying to shift discourses in the theoretical framework of historical archaeology of capitalism and colonialism through the use of postcolonial theory This work does not suggest a new theoretical framework as such but rather suggests the importance of revising key theoretical terms employed within historical archaeology arguing for new engagements with postcolonial theory of relevance to all historical archaeologists as the field de-centers from its traditional locations Examining case studies from North America South America the Caribbean Africa Australia the Middle East and Europe the chapters offer an unusually broad ranging geography of historical archaeology with each focused on the interplay between the particularisms of colonial structures and the development of capitalism and wider theoretical discussions Every author also draws attention to the ramifications of their case studies in the contemporary world With its cohesive theoretical framework this volume is a key resource for those interested in decolonizing historical archaeology in theory and praxis and for those interested in the development of modern global dynamics *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
