Conolly, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Mafeking Road Herman Charles Bosman, 2011-10-07 In a series of tales South Africa's greatest short story writer reveals a little described and rarely romanticized world of Afrikaner life in the late 19th century Like our own Mark Twain Herman Charles Bosman wields a laughing intolerance of foolishness and prejudice a dazzling use of wit and clear sighted judgment Spun by the plainclothes local visionary and storyteller Oom Shalk Lourens these moving and satirical glimpses of lethargic herdsmen ambitious concertina players legendary leopards and mambas and love struck dreamers lay bare immense emotions contradictions and mysteries within the smallest movements and unadorned talk of the Groot Marico District of the Transvaal province Leading oral tradition by the hand into a territory all his own Bosman maps a world at once lucid and layered distant yet powerfully familiar The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimaged in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature

The Tampines Tiger and Other Stories Norman Williams & Rex Kearns, 2016-02-08 Here lie the memoirs of Ponsenby who has a great propensity for being in the wrong place at the wrong time thereby seeing hearing and experiencing so much and all with a difference He travels through history and time across vastly differing landscapes and delves into the most mysterious places of all human endeavour beliefs culture and society Ponsenby is a British Indian medic or sawbones as he describes himself a livelihood that perceives both the serious and sombre perspectives on life and always with a wry twist of humour Oh and another place to go contemplation and reflection And a beautiful sadness filled our hearts And because we could not leave it the sadness slowly and inexorably turned into compassion We felt the sorrow of the whole world of little frightened children of the blind the halt and the lame and of those separated from their loved ones

The Oral-Style South African Short Story in English Craig MacKenzie, 2021-11-15 This study deals with a particular kind of short story in South African English literature a kind of story variously called the fireside tale tall tale skaz narrative or the term used here the oral style story Most famously exemplified in the Oom Schalk Lourens narratives of Herman Charles Bosman the oral style story has its roots in the hunting tale and camp fire yarn of the nineteenth century and has dozens of exponents in South African literature most of them long forgotten Here this neglect has been addressed A W Drayson's Tales at the Outspan 1862 provides a point of departure and is followed by discussions of works by William Charles Scully Percy FitzPatrick Ernest Glanville Perceval Gibbon Francis Carey Slater Pauline Smith and Aegidius Jean Blignaut all of whom used the oral style story genre In the work of Herman Charles Bosman however the South African oral style story comes into its own In his Oom Schalk Lourens figure is invested all of the complexity and double voicedness that was latent and largely dormant in the earlier works Bosman demonstrates his sophistication particularly in his metafictional use of the oral style story The study concludes with a discussion of the use of oral forms in the work of more recent black writers among them Bessie Head Mtutuzeli Matshoba and Njabulo Ndebele

Scatterlings- a Tapestry of Afri-Expat Tales Eve Hemming, 2013-06-26 Moving country remains the hugest thing we've ever experienced accomplished drowned in Its an act of seemingly utter insanity which negates all ones most primal connections to the cosmos I find myself quoting Keats more often Happiness is sharpened by its antithetical elements Experiencing a new chapter of life is life altering and isn't given enough credence Each day we are grateful to taste a figuratively different menu yet simultaneously we miss the staple diet stemming from our roots I recall emailing a psychologist colleague of mine a few months after my arrival here Am I experiencing a schism of the self I asked She replied No just re-inventing the self I kept that pinned on my notice board at work for the first year to reflect on

Kerfoot,2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Kaapse bibliotekaris ,1999 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati,2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies Joint Acquisitions List of Africana ,1989 International Books in Print ,1997 Halo and the Noose Dorian Haarhoff,2010-11 People involved in business at all levels have time constraints They are bombarded
